

| PLANT NAME                                                                             | COMMON NAME                    | ZONES | DESCRIPTION                                                                                                                                                                              | # PLANTS | LOCA     |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------|-------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------|----------|
| LOCA = Locations R = Row, Tbl = Table, GH1 = Green House 1, GH2 = Green House 2 |                                |       |                                                                                                                                                                                          |          |          |
| Abutilons                                                                | Flowering Maple                | 12-24 | Evergreen perennials with upright, arching growth from 10" to 8' depending on variety. Main bloom season in spring, but can bloom all year.                                              |          |          |
| Dwarf Red                                                                              |                                |       | Really red-orange, 15"-18"                                                                                                                                                               |          | Row 16   |
| Halo                                                                                   |                                |       | Low, compact blossoms are up to 2" across, pale apricot, 4'-5', ok down to 12-15o F with protection.                                                                                     | 28       | Tbl 1    |
| Peach                                                                                  |                                |       | peach blossoms, 6'-8'.                                                                                                                                                                   |          |          |
| Savitzii                                                                               |                                |       | Greyish green leaves with broad ivory margins and apricot pink flowers. 3'-4'                                                                                                            | 33       | GH2, R16 |
| Souvenir de Bonn                                                                       |                                |       | Broad green leaves edged in creamy white with pink flowers. 3'-9'                                                                                                                        |          | R16      |
| Tangerine                                                                              |                                |       | 6'-8' , tangerine orange blossoms                                                                                                                                                        |          | R16      |
| Teardrop                                                                               |                                |       | Drooping red and yellow blossoms, 4'-8'. Attracts butterflies and hummingbirds.                                                                                                          |          | R16      |
| megapotamicum "Paisley"                                                                |                                |       | Bright speckled foliage, somewhat vining, 3'-5'. Appreciates some pruning, attracts hummingbirds.                                                                                        | 5        | Shade    |
| Victor Reiter                                                                          |                                |       | 6' H & W, Salmon orange blossoms with broad green leaves.                                                                                                                                | 3        | R 16     |
| Vines                                                                    |                                |       |                                                                                                                                                                                          |          |          |
| Passiflora                                                                             | Coral Seas                     | 19-24 | 15-20', fast growing, vigorous vine somewhat frost tender, beautiful coral flowers. Best in full sun or part-shade. Moderate water, does not tolerate heat well. Needs frost protection. | 48       | GH2      |
| Solanum crispum                                                                        | Chilean Potato Vine            | 12-24 | 12', modest climber, bears 4" blue flowers with yellow center, fragrant. Full sun or part shade, moderate water. Poisonous if ingested.                                                  | 18       | Tbl 1    |
|                                                                                        |                                |       |                                                                                                                                                                                          |          |          |
| PLANT NAME                                                                             | COMMON NAME                    | ZONES | DESCRIPTION                                                                                                                                                                              | # PLANTS | LOCA     |
| Tall Perennials                                                          |                                |       |                                                                                                                                                                                          |          |          |
| Agastache mexicana                                                                     | Hummingbird MintRosy Giant |       | Lemon scented foliage with pink flowers in dense flower heads. Needs good drainage, 2'-4', flowers to 6'. Attracts hummingbirds , sun, moderate water.                                   | 3        | GH2      |
| Asclepias curassarica                                                                  | Silky Gold Tropical Milkweed   | 12-24 | Annual, native to South America. Stiff stems and narrow leaves to 3'. Bright yellow flowers, attractive to monarch butterfly caterpillars.                                               | 24       | GH2      |
| Asclepias physocarpas                                                                  | Family Jewels milkweed         | 14-24 | 5'H x 2'W, Native to So. Africa, naturalized in US, white flowers change into lime green seed balls. Monarch caterpillar food, full sun, regular water.                                  | 7        | GH2      |
| Azara microphylla                                                                      | Boxleaf Azara                  | 14-24 | Evergreen shiny, dark green foliage on small tree to 18'. Fluffy, yellow flowers with good scent, needs good drainage and regular fertilizer.                                            | 22       | Tbl 14   |
| Brugmansia cubensis                                                                    | Charles Grimaldi               | 12-24 | 8'-10', Lovely, with huge orange yellow flowers. Loves heat, humidity and sun, requires rich soil and regular water. May die back to roots after frost, but will regrow from roots.      | 53       | GH2      |

| Buddleia                 | yellow                              | 12-24         | 10'H & W, vigorous plant, drought hardy, attracts butterflies, best in full sun, regular water.                                                                                                                                                                | 4        | GH2                |
|--------------------------|-------------------------------------|---------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------|--------------------|
| Cannas                   | Apricot pink, misc.                 | 12-24         | 4'-6', regular water, rich, well-drained soil                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | 6        | GH2, Rows          |
| Cannas                   | Dark leaf red                       | 12-24         | 4'-6' with dark veined leaves, flower bright red.                                                                                                                                                                                                              | 10       | ?                  |
| Choisya ternate          | Mexican Orange Blossom              | 12-24         | 6'-8', moderate water, attracts bees, evergreen leaves and fragrant white blossoms in late winter.                                                                                                                                                             | 23       | Tbl 3, back of GH2 |
| Echium fastiosum         | Pride of Maderia                    | varies        | 3'-5' with spikes of purple-blue, very attractive to bees and pollinators. OK in dry, warm soil with good drainage.                                                                                                                                            | 20       | GH2                |
| Filipendula purpurea     | Meadowsweet                         | 3b-914-17 | 3-4' red plumes above 2' foliage, Moist soil, winter dormant. Full to part sun.                                                                                                                                                                                | 30       | Across T14         |
| Gnidia polystachya       |                                     | 12-24         | 3'H x 4'W, Easy So African shrub has profuse yellow flowers. Good drainage, sun, low water, fertilize in spring.                                                                                                                                               |          |                    |
| PLANT NAME               | COMMON NAME                         | ZONES         | DESCRIPTION                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | # PLANTS | LOCA               |
| Grevillea                | Canberra                            | 12-24         | 8' H x 12" W Open, graceful plant with prickly, needle like leaves, and clusters of red flowers in winter and early spring. Good barrier plant, loved by hummingbirds.                                                                                         | 13       | Tbl 5              |
| Helianthus augustifolia  | narrow-leaf sun flower              | varies        | 3'-6', Profusion of yellow flowers starting in early autumn, moderate water, loved by bees and butterflies. Seeds useful for finches, sparrows and other seed-loving birds. ☀                                                                                  | 22       | Tbl 4 & 6          |
| Lavatera x clementii     | Kew Rose- Bush Mallow               | to 15o F      | 6'-8' Vigorous, bushy, evergreen shrub, with large, bright pink hibiscus like flowers. Full sun, good drainage, occasional deep watering.                                                                                                                      | 7        | Tbl 14             |
| Leonotis leonaria        | Lions Tail                          | 8-24          | 4'-6', South African shrub with whirls of downy orange flowers, summer to fall. Low water, attracts hummingbirds.                                                                                                                                              | 10       | GH2                |
| Lepechinia hastata       | pitcher sage                        | 7-9, 14-24    | 6' From Mexico, may be native to Hawaii. Spreads by rhizomes, red-purple flower spikes, sun to part sun, little to moderate water.                                                                                                                             | 14       | Tbl 11             |
| Leptospermum macrocarpum | Australian Tea treeDark Shadows | 12-14         | 15' Tiny reddish leaves turn purplish bronze with 1" chartreuse yellow blooms in spring. ☀💧                                                                                                                                                                    | 10       | Across Tbl14       |
| Malvaviscus arborescens  | Turks Cap, Sleepy Hibiscus          | 14-24         | 4'-10' Stiff perennial, native to southeastern U.S. and Central America. Without frost, can be evergreen, elsewhere will regrow from roots after freezing. Small, red, upright blooms appear thru summer and fall, attractive to butterflies and hummingbirds. | 5        | Tbl C              |
| Phlomis monocephala      | Jerusalem Sage                      | 12-24         | 4' Compact, bushy shrub with 3" rounded leaves. Ball-like yellow flowers in spring. Drought hardy, full sun                                                                                                                                                    | 14       | Tbl 14             |
| Phlomis purpurea         |                                     | 7-24          | 4' - 6' Lax shrub, leaves are grey-green, woolly white below. Purplish pink flowers bloom mainly in spring. Drought Hardy, full sun.                                                                                                                           | 4        | Tbl 4              |
|                          |                                     |               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |          |                    |
| PLANT NAME               | COMMON NAME                         | ZONES         | DESCRIPTION                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | # PLANTS | LOCA               |
| Streptosolen jamsonii    | Marmalade bush                      | 13-24         | 4'-6' Colorful vine from South America with 1.5' orange or yellow flowers all summer. Needs a warm location, good drainage. ☀📍                                                                                                                                 | 11       | GH2                |

|                                 |                                                 |              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                 |               |
|---------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------|--------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------|---------------|
| Tibouchina heteromalla          | Silver leafed Princess Flower                   | 16-24        | 4'-6' Silvery green leaves with silver bottoms, 1- 1.5" dark purple flowers in clusters.                                                                                                                                                               | 31              | GH1           |
| Verbena bonariensis             |                                                 | 8-24         | 3'-6' Native to So. America, naturalized in Cal., airy branching stems with purple flowers. Sun, moderate water                                                                                                                                        | 3               | Tbl 14        |
| Medium Perennials |                                                 |              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                 |               |
| Anemone x hybrida               | Japanese anemone white, lavender                | 2b-24        | 2' H x 5'W, Graceful, branching stems grow from base of 3-5 lobed leaves, with nodding white flowers in the fall. Spreads by root rhizomes, part shade, moderate water.                                                                                | 20, 10          | Shade Hse     |
| Caryopteris Incana              | Common Bluebeard                                | 4-9          | 14"-24", Small, blue flower clusters top upright Asian shrub. Needs good drainage                                                                                                                                                                      | 4               | GH2           |
| Caryopteris - Hint of Gold      |                                                 | 4-9          | Spots of gold on the leaves                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | 2               | GH2           |
| Cerastostigma willmottainum     | Chinese plumbago                                | 2b-10        | 14"-24" -Low growing plants grow with intense blue flowers- bloom summer to late fall. Tolerates inconsistent watering                                                                                                                                 | 5               | Tbl 2         |
| Coleonema pulchellum            | Compact Breath of Heaven                        | 7-9          | 3' tall x 6' wide Evergreen shrubs with slender branches that are fragrant when brushed or bruised. Tiny pink or white flowers bloom freely over winter and spring, drought tolerant once established. Best in full sun to part shade. From So. Africa | Tbl 5           | 21            |
| Coleonema pulchellum            | Golden Sunset                                   | 7-9          | Has yellow foliage, grows 1.5' x 4'                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Tbl 5           | 12            |
|                                 |                                                 |              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                 |               |
|                                 |                                                 |              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                 |               |
|                                 |                                                 |              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                 |               |
| PLANT NAME               | COMMON NAME                              | ZONES | DESCRIPTION                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | # PLANTS | LOCA   |
| Coprosma repens                 |                                                 |              | Fast growing shrubs, drought tolerant once established, beautiful, glossy evergreen foliage, can be frost sensitive. Deer resistant                                                                                                                    |                 |               |
| Coprosma repens                 | County Park Red                                 | 14-24        | 3'x6'. Deep red, intensely shiny leaves.                                                                                                                                                                                                               | 9               | Tbl 11        |
| Coprosma repens                 | Inferno                                         | 14-24        | 4'-5', Colorful shrub with green leaves lined with lime green edged in red then turning brilliant pink and deep red fall and winter.                                                                                                                   | 4               | Tbl 5, Tbl 11 |
| Coprosma repens                 | Marble Queen                                    | 14-24        | 3'-5', creamy white leaves dotted with green                                                                                                                                                                                                           | 2               | Tbl 11        |
| Coprosma repens                 | Lemon Lime                                      | 14-24        | 3'x3', Compact evergreen shrub with lime green and yellow foliage.                                                                                                                                                                                     | 2               | Tbl 11        |
| Correa backhouseana             | Australian fuchsia "Carmine Bells"              | 14-24        | 2' x 4' , dense, spreading shrub with red, bell like flowers, drought tolerant, sun or part shade.                                                                                                                                                     | 5               | Tbl 4         |
| Euphorbia characias wulfenii    | All Euphorbias have irritating or poisonous sap | 4-24         | 3'x3', Upright shrub with blue-green leaves, topped by lime green inflorescences in spring. Full sun, low water.                                                                                                                                       |                 | ?             |
| Euphorbia characias             | Black pearl                                     |              | Evergreen perennial with stunning chartreuse "blooms" dotted with dramatically contrasting red-black eyes.                                                                                                                                             |                 | ?             |
| Euphorbia tirucalli             | Pencil milkbush                                 | 13-24        | Fast growing to possible 30', usually much smaller, multi- trunks with tiny leaves only on active growing tips.                                                                                                                                        | 5               | GH2           |

| Fuchsia thymifolia     | minature fuchsia               | 14-24              | Erect, grows to 5', with tiny glossy leaves and red-pink flowers that age to red. Part-sun, shade, moderate water. Resistent to fuchsia mite                                                         | 14       | Shade Hse        |
|------------------------|--------------------------------|--------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------|------------------|
| Hedychium coronarium   | white ginger                   | 19-24              | 3'-7', white flowers in 6-12" clusters, intensely fragrant.                                                                                                                                          | 1        | GH2              |
| Hibiscus trionum       | modesty, shoofly               | Protect from frost | a short-lived perennial native to old world, with compact, deeply-lobed dark green leaves, and white flowers with a deep red eye. Naturalized thru-out the US. Can be weedy or invasive. 2' H x 1' W | 8        | GH2              |
| PLANT NAME             | COMMON NAME                    | ZONES              | DESCRIPTION                                                                                                                                                                                          | # PLANTS | LOCA             |
| Hydrangea macrophylla  | Sister Theresa                 |                    | 6'x 6', Decidious shrub with beautiful, large, round balls of pure white flower clusters. Part to full shade, moderate water.                                                                        | 10       | GH1              |
| Lavandula angustifolia | English - Hidecote             | 2-24               | 1.5', deep purple flowers, medium green leaves                                                                                                                                                       | 29       | Tbl 8, R17       |
| Lavandula angustifolia | Munstead                       | 2-24               | 1.5' x 1.5' lavender flowers on grey-green plants flower late spring - summer. Grow in full sun; needs good drainage                                                                                 | 36, 22   | Tbl 12, Back GH2 |
| Lavandula x intermedia | Provence                       | 2-24               | 2' x 3' fragrant light violet flowers, good hedge plant.                                                                                                                                             | 2        | Tbl 8            |
| Lavandula x intermedia | Grosso                         | 2-24               | 2.5' x 2.5', Possibly most fragrant lavender, compact growth, silvery foliage with violet blue flowers. Excellent for drying                                                                         | 39       | Back GH2         |
| Lavandula stoechas     | Spanish lavender - Avonview    | 4-24               | 3' x 3', Often flowering twice, beloved of bees, tolerant of drought, frost and coastal conditions. Deer resistent .                                                                                 | 2        | Tbl 5            |
| Lavandula stoechas     | Marshwood                      | 4-24               | 2' x 1.5', bright purple bracts on bright green foliage. Sun and good drainage                                                                                                                       | 14       | Back GH2         |
| Lepecinia hastata      | False salvia                   |                    | 6' x 5' , drought tolerant once established, full or part sun, purple flowers, spreads to form a small thicket. Easy to grow, tough, deer resistent. Native to Mexico                                | 14       | Tbl 11           |
| Leptospermum scoparium | Nanum tui-New Zealand tea tree | 14-24              | 3', drought tolerant, small pale pink flowers on a compact, rounded evergreen shrub. Blooms from late winter thru spring.                                                                            | 2        | Tbl 5            |
| Parahebe perfoliata    | From Australia                 | 5-24               | 1.5'-4', Deep blue flowers on grey green leaves. Sprawling mounds bloom profusely in summer.                                                                                                         | 3        | Tbl 10           |
| Penstemon              | mexicali - Pikes Peak          | 1-3, 10            | 1.5' ht & wide, with narrow shiny leaves, flowers violet.                                                                                                                                            | 9        | Tbl 5            |
| Penstemon hybrid       | Blackbird                      | 6-9, 14-24         | Compact, bushy plants - 3' x 3', deep raspberry colored flowers last well into autumn.                                                                                                               | 2        | Tbl 5            |
| Penstemon hybrid       | Firebird                       | 6-9, 14-24         | 3' Bushy semi- evergreen floriferious perennial with bright, scarlet flowers.                                                                                                                        | 11       | Tbl 5            |
| PLANT NAME             | COMMON NAME                    | ZONES              | DESCRIPTION                                                                                                                                                                                          | # PLANTS | LOCA             |
| Penstemon hybrid       | Holly's White                  | 6-9, 14-24         | 3' Pure white flowers on shrubby plant, large-flowered and long blooming                                                                                                                             | 22       | R 18             |
| Penstemon hybrid       | Huntington Pink                | 6-9, 14-24         | 3'H x 1.5' W, Bright pink with white center, Evergreen, drought resistent, Deer and gopher resistent, Attracts butterflies and hummingbirds. Sun, part sun.                                          | 7        | Tbl 5            |
| Penstemon hybrid       | Sour Grapes                    | 6-9, 14-24         | 2' x 1.5', Unusually large bell shaped violet/metallic blue flowers                                                                                                                                  | 25       | Tbl 5            |
| Penstemon hybrid       | Thorn                          | 6-9, 14-24         | 3' x 3' white blushed pink flowers, long blooming                                                                                                                                                    | 31       | Tbl 4            |
| Phlomis monocephala    | Jeruselum Sage                 | 2-24               | 4' Compact, bushy shrub with 3" rounded leaves. Ball-like yellow flowers in spring. Drought hardy, full sun                                                                                          | 14       | Tbl 14           |

|                                |                         |              |                                                                                                                                                                               |                 |             |
|--------------------------------|-------------------------|--------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------|-------------|
| Phlomis russelliana            | Jerusalem Sage          | 2-24         | 2' - 3' Heart shaped furry olive green leaves and yellow spikes of flowers. Drought hardy, full sun, partial shade                                                            | 31              | Tbl 4, 14   |
| Prostranthe ovalifolia         | Australian mint bush    | 14-17,19-24  | 3'-10' Fragrant foliage and many small purple or white flowers. Need good drainage, full sun, moderate water.                                                                 | 11              | Tbl 5       |
| Short Perennials |                         |              |                                                                                                                                                                               |                 |             |
| Asteriscus maritimus           | Gold Coin Daisy         | 15-24        | 1' x 4' Mediterranean native, attractive green groundcover with bright yellow daisy flowers. Full sun, low to mod. water, tolerates poor soil. Attracts bees.                 | 7               | Tbl 2       |
| Bulbine frutescens             |                         | 9, 12-24     | 1' x 3' South African perennial - Long, fleshy green leaves like pencils, with spikes of yellow or orange flowers. Sun, low water, good ground cover.                         | 5               | misc.       |
| Campanula poscharskyana        | Serbian bellflower-blue | 14-24        | 8" Vigorous, spreading clump with star-shaped 1" blue flowers in spring. Reg. water, shady groundcover.                                                                       | 49              | Tbl 1, 2    |
| Campanula poscharskyana        | white                   | 14-24        | 8" Vigorous, spreading clump with star-shaped 1" white flowers in spring. Reg. water, shady groundcover.                                                                      | 17              | Row 17      |
| PLANT NAME              | COMMON NAME      | ZONES | DESCRIPTION                                                                                                                                                            | # PLANTS | LOCA |
| Cistus p. "Sunset"             | Magenta rockrose        | 14-24        | 2' H x 8' W, Grey green leaves with dark pink flowers. Low water, full sun.                                                                                                   | 31              | Tbl 4, 13   |
| Cistus Salviifolius            | Sage leaf rockrose      | 14-24        | 2' H x 6' W, Light grey-green leaves are crinkley, profuse show of white flowers with yellow spots in spring. Low water, full sun - good bank cover.                          | 11              | Tbl 5, 13   |
| Cistus skanbergii              | Dwarf pink rockrose     | 14-24        | 3' x 6' , compact, bushy, evergreen shrub with masses of pale pink flowers in the spring. Low fuel fire plant, low water, full sun.                                           | 3               | R 17        |
| Coreopsis auriculata Nana      | Dwarf tickseed          | 1-24         | 6" H x 2' W, Bright orange-yellow flowers above green, strappy leaves, blooms spring to fall. Low water, full sun, attracts butterflies.                                      | 12              | Tbl 12      |
| Erigeron karvinkianus          | Santa Barbara daisy     | 4-24         | 10"H x 3' W, Native to Mexico. Dainty, trailing plant with 3/4" white to pink daisy-like flowers. Always in bloom, good ground cover, drought tolerant. Sun or part shade.    | 12              | Tbl 15      |
| Geranium x cantabrigiense      | Biokovo cranesbill      | 1-24         | 6" Excellent ground cover, spreads slowly but widely, leaves scented, white flowers blushed pink. Best in part shade, regular water                                           | 22              | Tbl 1       |
| Geranium macrorrhizum          | "Ingwersens Variety"    | 1-24         | 10" H, fast spreading ground cover, blush pink flowers in spring. Best with part shade, regular water.                                                                        | 21              | Tbl 11      |
| Geranium pyrenaicum            | Bill Wallis             | 12-24        | 15" H x 20" W Deep purple cloud of color, tough and easy. When thru blooming, cut to 1", fertilize and will come back in bloom. Best in rich soil, Part shade, regular water. | 27              | Tbl 1       |
| Lessingia filaginiflora        | Silver Carpet           | 4-24         | 4" x 3', Tough as nails, this groundcover is drought, clay and salt resistant. Summer and fall blooms with 1" lavender daisies. Sun, low water - attracts butterflies.        | 14              | Tbl 4       |
| Liriope muscari                | Blue lilyturf           | 14-24        | 12" Dark green grass-like perennial grows in clumps that that do not spread quickly. Full sun to part shade, regular water, tolerates drought.                                |                 | Tbl 2?      |

| PLANT NAME                     | COMMON NAME                       | ZONES   | DESCRIPTION                                                                                                                                                                                    | # PLANTS | LOCA      |
|--------------------------------|-----------------------------------|---------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------|-----------|
| Nepeta faassenii               | Catmint - Six Hills Giant         | 1-24    | 2' x 3' This plant is broad and vigorous, flowers a deep blue. Full sun or part shade, regular water, attracts bees. Attractive to some cats.                                                  | 13       | Tbl 4     |
| Rosemarinus officinalis        | Rosemary - Huntington Carpet      | 4-24    | 18" Spreads vigorously, pale blue flowers, best variety for bank or ground cover. Full sun, drought tolerant.                                                                                  | 34       | Tbl C, 8  |
| Rosemarinus officinalis        | Ken Taylor                        | 4-24    | 2' H x 4' W, Dark blue flowers, trailing, frost tender, full sun, drought tolerant.                                                                                                            | 12       | Tbl 8     |
| Rosemarinus officinalis        | Boule                             | 4-24    | 2' x 2' Forms a dense mound with arching branches. Good spilling over a wall or container. Full sun, little water, medium blue flowers.                                                        | 7        | Tbl 8     |
| Saponaria lempergia            | Soapwort -Max Frei                | 14-24   | 6 "H x 18" W Small green leaves and profusion of 1' pink flowers in summer and fall. Full sun, good                                                                                            | 6 + 7    | Tbl 1, 2  |
| Silene vulgaris                | Moss campion - Maritima           | 14-24   | 6"H x 8H Forms a low cushion of grey-green leaves, 1" white flowers in summer. Full or part sun, moderate water.                                                                               | 53       | Tbl 1     |
| Stachys byzantium              | Wooly Lambs Ears Helen von Stein  | 1-24    | 18"H x 36" W Grey fuzzy leaves and spikes of lavender flowers, spreads by surface runners. Full sun or part shade, moderate water. Beloved by bees.                                            | 6 + 2    | Tbl 5, 18 |
| Teucrium chameadrys-Prostratum | Creeping Germander                | 2-24    | 6""H x 3'W, many upright woody stems covered with dark green leaves, red purple flowers in spikes, attracts bees. Full sun, moderate water.                                                    | GH2      | 7         |
| GRASSES          |                                   |         |                                                                                                                                                                                                |          |           |
| Carex testacea                 | Sedge                             |         | 2'H x 3'W From New Zealand Arching, fine textured clumps of olive green and orange foliage. Greener in shade, more orange in sun. Moderate water .                                             | 32       | Tbl 9     |
| Chondropetalum elephantinum    | Cape rush                         | 14-24   | 4'H x 6'W Native to So. Africa, striking, elegant accent in pot or ground. Full sun or part shade, ample water.                                                                                | 13       | Tbl 9     |
| PLANT NAME                     | COMMON NAME                       | ZONES   | DESCRIPTION                                                                                                                                                                                    | # PLANTS | LOCA      |
| Festuca idahoensis             | Idaho blue fescue - Siskiyou blue | 14-24   | 24" H & W Native from Canada to California and Colorado, silvery blue foliage in dense clumps. Tolerates shade and wet winter soil. Best in sun, moderate water.                               | 12       | Tbl 6     |
| Festuca glauca                 | Blue fescue - Elijah Blue         | 14-24   | 12"H x 10"W Native to Europe, dense, narrow tufts of fine, silver grey leaves, drought tolerant once established. Full sun                                                                     | 13       | Tbl 9     |
| Melinus nerviglums             | Ruby grass                        | 2B - 28 | 1'H & W Native to Africa, narrow blue-green leaves with 2' flower spikes that open deep pink and fade to tan. Full sun, regular water.                                                         | 7        | Tbl 9     |
| Miscanthus sinensis            | Japanese silver grass             | 2-24    | 3-7' H & W Native to Asia, dense clumps of tall grass, blooms in summer and late fall. Full sun or part shade, moderate water.                                                                 | 11       | Tbl 9     |
| Muhlenbergia lindheimeri       |                                   | 6-24    | 5'H & W Native to Texas and Mexico, clumps of tall, arching leaves with flowers spikes to 7'.                                                                                                  | 35       | Tbl 9     |
| Sesleria autumnalis            | Autumn Moor grass                 | 14-24   | 1-3' H & W Spiky clumps of narrow, lime green leaves                                                                                                                                           | 25       | Tbl 9     |
| Stipa arundinacea              | Pheasant tail grass               | 14-24   | 2-3' H & W, From New Zealand, forms dense clumps, arching leaves are olive green streaked with orange in summer, completely orange in fall and winter. Full sun to part shade, moderate water. | 15       | Tbl 9     |
| Salvias          | (Sages)             |         |                                                                                                                                                                                                |          |           |

|                                  |                       |              |                                                                                                                                                                          |                 |               |
|----------------------------------|-----------------------|--------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------|---------------|
| Allen Chickering                 |                       | 19-24        | 5' H & W, Fragrant leaves and lavender -blue flowers, good for dry sunny areas, attractive to bees, butterflies and hummingbirds.                                        | 11+15           | Tbl 6, 13     |
| *Bee's Bliss                     | x sonomensis          | 14-24        | 2'H x 6' W, cross with California native, drought tolerant, lavender flower spikes, lives up to it's name. Full sun.                                                     | 1               | GH2           |
| buchananii                       |                       | 19-24        | 3'H & W, Large, shiny green leaves and huge magenta sage flowers. Part sun, moderate water, needs good drainage, frost tender. Attracts bees, butterflies, hummingbirds. | 5               | GH2           |
| PLANT NAME                | COMMON NAME    | ZONES | DESCRIPTION                                                                                                                                                       | # PLANTS | LOCA   |
| Salvias - contd    | (Sages) |              |                                                                                                                                                                          |                 |               |
| chamaedryoides                   | Marine Blue           | 14-24        | 1-2' H & 3' W, Silvery 3/4" leaves and brilliant blue 1" flowers in spring and summer. Tolerates drought, but better with more water, full sun.                          | 4               | GH2           |
| Dara's Choice                    | x sonomensis          | 14-24        | 3' H & W, Bushy, spreading plant with tight whirls of violet-blue flowers. Good as bank cover or draped over a bank. Full sun, best with coast influence.                | 11              | GH1           |
| darcyii                          | galeana sage          | 14-24        | 3'H & W, Native to Mexico, large 1" redish purple flowers from early summer to fall. Full sun, good drainage, moderate water.                                            | 3               | GH2           |
| Leucantha                        | Mexican bush sage     | 12-24        | 3'H x 4'W, upright shrub with spikes of purple or white and purple flowers in late summer. Full sun, limit water to every 2 weeks, dies back with frost.                 | 15              | Row 17        |
| Phyllis' Fancy                   | (x leucantha)         | 12-24        | 5'H x 4'W, Large, vigorous plant with foot long flower spikes of bicolored flowers of lavender and blue. Full sun, moderate water, attracts hummingbirds.                | 65              | GH2           |
| Regla                            | Royal sage            | 12-24        | 3'H & W, Native to Texas and Mexico, medium green leaves with 1" bright red flowers early summer and fall. Part sun, moderate water.                                     | 17              | GH2           |
| mellifera*                       | Terra Seca Black Sage | 14-24        | 2'H x 5'W, low growing form of our native black sage. Lavender flowers attracts bees and hummingbirds, drought tolerant, full sun.                                       | 3               | GH2           |
| Uliginosa                        | Bog Sage              | 14-24        | 4' H & W, Smooth green leaves are topped with sky blue sage blossoms, spreads aggressively thru root rhizomes. Part shade, moderate water.                               | 13 + 16         | Tbl 2, 15, 17 |
| Waverly (leucantha)              |                       | 12-24        | 5' H x W, Vigorous, upright plants with white and purple blooms, blooms spring - fall, low water, deer resistant.                                                        | 12              | GH2           |
| Wendy's Wish                     |                       | 12-24        | 3' H & W, Compact, evergreen shrub with dark green leaves, with flowers of deep, purple red. Medium water, full or part sun.                                             | 3               | GH2           |
| PLANT NAME                | COMMON NAME    | ZONES | DESCRIPTION                                                                                                                                                       | # PLANTS | LOCA   |
| California Natives |                       |              |                                                                                                                                                                          |                 |               |
| Achilla millifolium              | Sonoma Coast          | 14-24        | 12" H, Bright green leaves topped with compact, white flower heads. Sun, part shade, drought tolerant, but best with some water                                          | 17              | Tbl 6         |
| Achilla millifolium              | Shell Beach           | 14-24        | 12" H, Greyer leaves topped with pure white flower heads. Sun, part shade, drought tolerant, but best with some vigor. Deer resistant.                                   | 18              | Tbl 3         |

|                                         |                                 |              |                                                                                                                                                                                           |                 |             |
|-----------------------------------------|---------------------------------|--------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------|-------------|
| Arctostaphylos edmundsii                | Carmel Sur                      | 14-24        | 1'H x 6' W, Low growing ground cover with grey-green leaves and pink flowers (tho rarely blooms). Drought tolerant, especially in part shade, tolerates summer water.                     | 13              | Tbl 6       |
| Baccharus pilularis                     | Pigeon Point                    | 14-24        | 2' H x 6' W, Native to No. Calif., Smaller bushy shrub, drought hardy, full or part sun.                                                                                                  |                 | Tbl 6       |
| Baccharus pilularis                     | consanguinea                    | 14-24        | 3-6' H x 6' W, Native to No. Calif. , Bushy evergreen shrub, near coast needs no water, inland monthly water. Needs shearing once a year to look good.                                    | 21              | Tbl 6       |
| Baccharus pilularis                     | Twin Peaks                      | 14-24        | 3'H x 6' W, Bushy shrub has small dark green leaves and moderate growth rate, drought tolerant                                                                                            | 10              | Tbl 6       |
| Baccharus pilularis                     | Coyote bush                     | 14-24        | 6'H x 6'W, Native to Oregon, Calif. And Baja Bright green leaves on dense shrub. Sun, tolerates drought.                                                                                  | 10              | Back GH2    |
| Ceanothus gloriosas                     | Anchor Bay                      | 14-24        | 1.5'H x 6'W, Dense, low growing groundcover, very dense. Dark green spiny leaves, medium blue flowers. Part sun in hot areas, low water.                                                  | 12              | Shade Hse   |
| Ceanothus                               | Julia Phelps                    | 14-24        | 6'H & W, Small dark green leaves with dark 1" indigo clusters of flowers. One of the best bloomers, sun, low water.                                                                       | 3               | mixed       |
| Ceanothus maritimus                     | Point Sierra                    | 14-24        | 3'H x 5' W, Grey green leaves on arching branches, blue lavender flowers in spring. Tolerates heat, low water.                                                                            | 11              | Tbl 8       |
| Ceanothus griseus h.                    | Yankee Point                    | 14-24        | 3'H x 9'W, Shiny dark green leaves on spreading, mounding plant - medium blue flowers. Sun, part-shade low water.                                                                         | 12              | Back GH2    |
| PLANT NAME                       | COMMON NAME              | ZONES | DESCRIPTION                                                                                                                                                                        | # PLANTS | LOCA |
| California Natives -contd |                                 |              |                                                                                                                                                                                           |                 |             |
| Cornus sericea (stolonifera)            | Red Twig dogwood                | 14-21        | 8'H x 12'W Grown for brilliant red fall foliage, native to moist places. Oval green leaves and small 2" clusters of flowers in spring. Shade tolerant.                                    | 10              | Tbl 6       |
| Dudleya farinose                        | Noyo River                      | 5,7,14-24    | Low growing succulents native to No. Calif and So. Oregon. Fleshy, grey-blue leaves with stalks of yellow flowers in spring. Needs bright light and protection from rain, hail and frost. | 18              | GH1         |
| Epilobium canum                         | Calistoga                       | 14-24        | 1.5'H x 3'W, Forms a spreading mat of fuzzy, gray leaves. Flowers are orange-red trumpet shaped. Full sun, occasional deep water, cut back in fall to rejuvenate.                         | 19              | R17         |
| Epilobium canum                         | Everett's Choice                | 14-24        | 1' H x 3' W Low spreading form of Ca fuchsia. Fuzzy, grey foliage with many scarlet flowers summer thru fall. Full sun, light shade, water 1x month once established.                     | 5               | Tbl 3       |
| Erigeron glaucas                        | Sea Breeze                      | 4-6, 22-24   | 1' H x 1.5 W', Spreading clump with large pink flowers. Sun/ part sun, low water.                                                                                                         | 22              | Tbl 3       |
| Eriogonum fasciculatum                  | Calif. Buckwheat Warriner Lytle | 12-24        | 1.5' x 7' Spreading, evergreen groundcover with tight clusters of creamy white flowers. Very attractive to pollinators, seeds attract birds. Full to part sun, low water, deer resistant. | 17              | Tbl 6       |
| Frageria vesca                          | Montana de Oro                  | 8-24         | 4" H x 4' W, Excellent groundcover for shade, smothers weeds, tasty fruit. Occasional water , flower color white.                                                                         | 23              | Tbl 3       |
| Heterotheca villosa                     | San Bruno Mtns                  | 12-24        | 10" H x 18" W, Tough native yellow daisy for rock garden or dry places. Evergreen foliage makes a low mat. Sun, low water.                                                                | 22              | Tbl 3       |

| PLANT NAME                                         | COMMON NAME              | ZONES | DESCRIPTION                                                                                                                                                                               | # PLANTS | LOCA  |
|----------------------------------------------------|--------------------------|-------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------|-------|
| California Natives -contd            |                          |       |                                                                                                                                                                                           |          |       |
| Lonicera involucrata                               | Honeysuckle bush         | 12-24 | 8' H & W, Deciduous green shrub for moist places, tubular yellow and red flowers attracts hummingbirds. Birds love the black berries, full to part sun, regular water.                    | 4        | Tbl 3 |
| Oxalis organa                                      | Redwood sorrel           | 14-24 | 10" H, Spreads by rhizomes, medium green clover-like leaves and white or lavender flowers. Shade, regular water, tolerates wet conditions.                                                | 12       | Tbl 3 |
| Penstamon heterophyllus                            | Margarita BOP            | 12-24 | 2' H x 3' W, Long blooming sky blue flowers that fade to purple. Attracts bees, sun, regular water                                                                                        | 8        | Tbl 6 |
| Ribes sanguineum                                   | Red flowering current    | 12-24 | 8' H & W, Green, deciduous shrub has drooping pink or red clusters of flowers in spring. Shade/ part shade, low water.                                                                    | 3        | Tbl 3 |
| Salvia clevelandii                                 | Allen Chickering         | 12-24 | 4' H & W, Fragrant sage with lavender blue flowers in spring, good for dry sunny areas. Deer resistant, attractive to hummingbirds, bees and butterflies.                                 | 11       | Tbl 6 |
| Salvia mellifera                                   | black sageTerra Seca | 12-24 | low growing succulents native to No. Calif and So. Oregon. Fleshy, grey-blue leaves with stalks of yellow flowers in spring. Needs bright light and protection from rain, hail and frost. | 2        | GH2   |
| Spiraea densiflora(new species name splendens) | Mountain spirea          | 12-24 | 3'H & W, Deciduous shrub bears pink flowers in dense clusters in summer. Full/part sun, regular water.                                                                                    | 6        | Tbl 3 |
| Symphoricarpos albus                               | Snowberry                | 12-24 | 6' H & W, Deciduous shrub produces pink flowers followed by white berries. Produces most fruit in sun, tolerant of poor soil, low light, and neglect. Low to moderate water.              | 3        | Tbl 3 |
| Symphoricarpos albus                               | Alba Variegatus          | 12-24 | 4' H & W, Slower growing shrub, green leaves with white margins. Shade/ part shade, Low to moderate water.                                                                                | 20       | Tbl 3 |

Willowside Nursery Map

Green-house 2
East

Tbl
13

Tabl
12

Tbl
11

Table 10

Table 8

Tbl
14

Tbl
15

Tbl 9

Table 4

Table 5

Table 1

Table 2

Table 3

Shade house
Potting shed

Table A

Table B

Table C

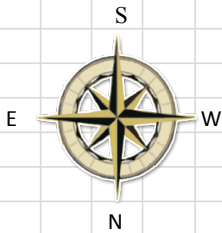

Table D

Tbl
E

Greenhouse 1 -West

Japanese

Maples

Row
16

Row 17

Row 18

Propagation Greenhouse

|                        |             |          |
|------------------------|-------------|----------|
| DATE:                  |             |          |
|                        |             |          |
| TBL A           | Size | # |
|                        |             |          |
| Calindrinia            | 1 gal       |          |
| Coleonema              | 2"          |          |
| Solanum glasnevin      | 2"          |          |
| Asteriscus             | 1 gal       |          |
| Penstamon Garnet       | 1 gal       |          |
| Geranium Biokovo       | 1 gal       |          |
| Euonymous asia         | 1 gal       |          |
| C. Yankee pt           | 2"          |          |
| Festuca Tall Blue      | 1 gal       |          |
| Abutilon Tear Drop     | liner? 2"   |          |
| Muhlenbergia cap.      | liner? 2"   |          |
| Ceanothus cuneatus     | liner? 2"   |          |
| C. Yankee pt           | 1 gal       |          |
| Berberis Crimson pigmy | 1 gal       |          |

|  |                                |                                |                                       |                             |       |       |  |
|--|--------------------------------|--------------------------------|---------------------------------------|-----------------------------|-------|-------|--|
|  | Red are new additions to list  |                                |                                       |                             |       |       |  |
|  | Name                    | Common Name             |                                       |                             |       |       |  |
|  | A                       |                                |                                       |                             |       |       |  |
|  | Abutilons                      |                                | TE                                    |                             |       |       |  |
|  |                                | Halo                           | T2 28                                 |                             |       |       |  |
|  |                                | Savitzii                       | TB 33                                 | TD 20                       |       |       |  |
|  |                                | Victor Reiter                  | TC 3                                  |                             |       |       |  |
|  |                                |                                |                                       |                             |       |       |  |
|  | * Achillea millifolium         | Sonoma Coast                   |                                       |                             |       |       |  |
|  | * Achillea millifolium         | Shell Beach                    | T3 18                                 |                             |       |       |  |
|  | Acorus gramineus               | Minimus aureus                 |                                       |                             |       |       |  |
|  | Agapanthus                     | Lily of the Nile               |                                       |                             |       |       |  |
|  | Agastache                      | Rosy Giant                     | Tbl 2 8                               |                             |       |       |  |
|  | Agave americana var. marginata |                                |                                       |                             |       |       |  |
|  | Aloes                          |                                |                                       |                             |       |       |  |
|  | Alstromeria pulchella          | red/green, red, golden, yellow |                                       |                             |       |       |  |
|  | Aquilegia formosa              |                                |                                       |                             |       |       |  |
|  | * Arctostaphylos               | Anchor Bay                     | Tbl 6 5                               |                             |       |       |  |
|  | * Arctostaphylos e.            | Carmel Sur                     | Tbl 6 24                              |                             |       |       |  |
|  | * Asarum canadense             | Canadian wild ginger           | Native to Canada and Eastern US       |                             |       | T3 4  |  |
|  | Asclepias curassarica          | Silky gold tropical milkweed   |                                       |                             |       |       |  |
|  | Asclepias physocarpa           | Family Jewels milkweed         | Native to S. Africa, naturalized here |                             |       |       |  |
|  | Asteriscus maritimus           |                                | T2 7                                  |                             |       |       |  |
|  | Azara microphylla              |                                |                                       |                             |       |       |  |
|  |                                |                                |                                       |                             |       |       |  |
|  | B                       |                                |                                       |                             |       |       |  |
|  | Baccharus piluris              | Consanguinea                   |                                       |                             |       |       |  |
|  | Baccharus piluris              | Twin Peaks                     |                                       |                             |       |       |  |
|  | Baccharus piluris              |                                |                                       |                             |       |       |  |
|  | Bird of Paradise               |                                |                                       |                             |       |       |  |
|  | Brugmansia                     | Charles Grimaldi               |                                       |                             |       |       |  |
|  | Buddlia - lavender             |                                |                                       |                             |       |       |  |
|  | Buddlia - yellow               |                                |                                       |                             |       |       |  |
|  |                                |                                |                                       |                             |       |       |  |
|  | C                       |                                |                                       |                             |       |       |  |
|  | Calindrinia                    |                                | TD 25                                 |                             |       |       |  |
|  | Campanula poscharskyana        | Blue / White                   | TC R17                                | 19 17                       | TD 51 | T1 21 |  |
|  | C.                             | Blue                           | T2 28                                 |                             |       |       |  |
|  | Ceanothus                      | Julia Phelps                   |                                       |                             |       |       |  |
|  | Ceanothus gloriosas            | Anchor Bay                     | SH 12                                 |                             |       |       |  |
|  | Ceanothus griseus              | Yankee Point                   | GH2 12                                |                             |       |       |  |
|  | Ceanothus maritimus            | Point Sierra                   | T8 11                                 |                             |       |       |  |
|  | Ceratostigma willmottianum     | Chinese plumbago               | TC 31                                 | T2 5                        |       |       |  |
|  | Choisya ternata                | Mexican mock orange            | T3 23                                 |                             |       |       |  |
|  | Cistus x pulverulentus         | "Sunset" Rock Rose             | T4 21                                 |                             |       |       |  |
|  | Cistus salvifolius             | Sage leaf rock rose            | T5 9                                  |                             |       |       |  |
|  | Coleonema Pulchellum           | Breath of Heaven               | TB 41                                 |                             |       |       |  |
|  | Coleonema Pulchellum           | Golden Sunset                  | TB 31                                 |                             |       |       |  |
|  | Columbine                      | misc colors                    | T4 2                                  |                             |       |       |  |
|  | Coprosma repens                | County Park Red                | T11 8                                 |                             |       |       |  |
|  | Coprosma repens                | Inferno                        | T5, 11 5                              |                             |       |       |  |
|  | Coprosma repens                | Lemon and Lime                 | T4 11                                 | Shooting Star donation flat |       |       |  |

|  |                           |                                     |               |                       |       |             |  |
|--|---------------------------|-------------------------------------|---------------|-----------------------|-------|-------------|--|
|  | Coprosma repens           | Marble Queen                        | T4 13         |                       |       |             |  |
|  |                           |                                     |               |                       |       |             |  |
|  | Correa - Carmine Bells    | Australian Fuschia                  | T4 16         |                       |       |             |  |
|  | Cornus stolonifera        | Red twig dogwood                    | T3 7          |                       |       |             |  |
|  |                           |                                     |               |                       |       |             |  |
|  | D                  |                                     |               |                       |       |             |  |
|  |                           |                                     |               |                       |       |             |  |
|  | Dalia                     | Tree                                | TC 5          |                       |       |             |  |
|  | Daylily                   | Purple Ruffles                      | T2 6          |                       |       |             |  |
|  |                           |                                     |               |                       |       |             |  |
|  | E                  |                                     |               |                       |       |             |  |
|  |                           |                                     |               |                       |       |             |  |
|  | Epilobium canum           | Everetts Choice                     | T3 5          |                       |       |             |  |
|  | Erigeron glaucus          | Sea Breeze                          | T3 22         |                       |       |             |  |
|  | Eschscholzia californica  | California poppy                    | T3 13         |                       |       |             |  |
|  | Eriogonum fasciculatum    | Warriner Lytle                      | T3 32         |                       |       |             |  |
|  | Euonymus fortunei         | Wolong Ghost                        | T2 6          |                       |       | groundcover |  |
|  | Euphorbia x martinii      | red                                 | T2 3          |                       |       | 18-24"      |  |
|  |                           |                                     |               |                       |       |             |  |
|  | F                  |                                     |               |                       |       |             |  |
|  |                           |                                     |               |                       |       |             |  |
|  |                           | Montana de oro, woodland strawberry |               |                       |       |             |  |
|  | Frageria vesca            |                                     | T3 21         |                       |       |             |  |
|  | Fuschia thymifolia        | SH 20                               | SH 20         |                       |       |             |  |
|  |                           |                                     |               |                       |       |             |  |
|  | G                  |                                     |               |                       |       |             |  |
|  |                           |                                     |               |                       |       |             |  |
|  | Geranium x cantabrigiense | Biokovo                             | T! 22         |                       |       |             |  |
|  |                           |                                     |               |                       |       |             |  |
|  | Geranium pyrenaicum       | Bill Wallis                         | T1 27         |                       |       |             |  |
|  |                           |                                     |               |                       |       |             |  |
|  | Ginidia polystachya       |                                     | TC 40         | Now T5                |       |             |  |
|  |                           |                                     |               |                       |       |             |  |
|  |                           |                                     |               |                       |       |             |  |
|  | H                  |                                     |               |                       |       |             |  |
|  |                           |                                     |               |                       |       |             |  |
|  | Heleborus                 | misc colors                         | T4 16         |                       |       |             |  |
|  | Helianthus augustofolia   | Swamp sunflower                     | TB 4,6 lots   | Shooting Star 2 flats |       |             |  |
|  | Helichrysum               | Gold Coin                           | T1 15         |                       |       |             |  |
|  | Heterotheca               | San Bruno                           | T1 11         | T2 4                  | T3 22 |             |  |
|  |                           |                                     |               |                       |       |             |  |
|  | Heuchera                  | Crimson Curls                       | T1 2          |                       |       |             |  |
|  | Hypericum                 |                                     | TA 24/ BH GH2 |                       |       |             |  |
|  |                           |                                     |               |                       |       |             |  |
|  |                           |                                     |               |                       |       |             |  |
|  | I                  |                                     |               |                       |       |             |  |
|  |                           |                                     |               |                       |       |             |  |
|  | Iris, misc. colors        | German                              | TD 13         |                       |       |             |  |
|  |                           |                                     |               |                       |       |             |  |
|  | J                  |                                     |               |                       |       |             |  |
|  |                           |                                     |               |                       |       |             |  |

|  |                         |                                 |          |                       |  |  |  |
|--|-------------------------|---------------------------------|----------|-----------------------|--|--|--|
|  |                         |                                 |          |                       |  |  |  |
|  |                         |                                 |          |                       |  |  |  |
|  |                         |                                 |          |                       |  |  |  |
|  |                         |                                 |          |                       |  |  |  |
|  | K                |                                 |          |                       |  |  |  |
|  |                         |                                 |          |                       |  |  |  |
|  |                         |                                 |          |                       |  |  |  |
|  |                         |                                 |          |                       |  |  |  |
|  |                         |                                 |          |                       |  |  |  |
|  |                         |                                 |          |                       |  |  |  |
|  | L                |                                 |          |                       |  |  |  |
|  |                         |                                 |          |                       |  |  |  |
|  | Lamium                  |                                 | T1 3     |                       |  |  |  |
|  | Lavendula               | Hidecot                         | TB 29    |                       |  |  |  |
|  | Leptospermum scoparium  | Australian Tea Tree - Nanum Tui | T5 2     |                       |  |  |  |
|  | Lessingia filaginifolia | Silver Carpet                   | Tbl 4 14 |                       |  |  |  |
|  | Lonicera involucrata    | Twinberry bush                  | T3 5     |                       |  |  |  |
|  |                         |                                 |          |                       |  |  |  |
|  |                         |                                 |          |                       |  |  |  |
|  | M                |                                 |          |                       |  |  |  |
|  |                         |                                 |          |                       |  |  |  |
|  | Malvaviscus arborescens |                                 | TD 16    |                       |  |  |  |
|  |                         |                                 |          |                       |  |  |  |
|  |                         |                                 |          |                       |  |  |  |
|  | N                |                                 |          |                       |  |  |  |
|  |                         |                                 |          |                       |  |  |  |
|  | Nepeta fassenii         | Six Hills Giant - Catmint       | T4 13    |                       |  |  |  |
|  |                         |                                 |          |                       |  |  |  |
|  |                         |                                 |          |                       |  |  |  |
|  | O                |                                 |          |                       |  |  |  |
|  |                         |                                 |          |                       |  |  |  |
|  | Oxalis oregana          | Redwood sorrel                  | T3 12    |                       |  |  |  |
|  |                         |                                 |          |                       |  |  |  |
|  |                         |                                 |          |                       |  |  |  |
|  | P                |                                 |          |                       |  |  |  |
|  |                         |                                 |          |                       |  |  |  |
|  | Penstamon hyb           | Blackbird                       | T5 2     |                       |  |  |  |
|  | Penstamon hyb           | Firebird                        | T5 11    |                       |  |  |  |
|  | Penstamon hyb           | Midnight                        |          | Shooting Star 2 flats |  |  |  |
|  | Penstamon hyb           | Sour Grapes                     | T5 25    |                       |  |  |  |
|  | Penstamon hyb           | Thorn                           | T4 31    |                       |  |  |  |
|  | Penstamon mexicali      | Pikes Peak                      | T5 9     |                       |  |  |  |
|  | Phlomis purpurea        | purple phlomis                  | T4 4     | (San Marcos)          |  |  |  |
|  | Phlomis russelliana     | Hardy Jerusalem Sage            | T4 15    | Shooting Star 1 flat  |  |  |  |
|  | Physocarpus capitatus   | Western ninebark                | T3 3     |                       |  |  |  |
|  | Prostanther ovalifolia  | TA 45                           |          |                       |  |  |  |
|  |                         |                                 |          |                       |  |  |  |
|  |                         |                                 |          |                       |  |  |  |
|  | R                |                                 |          |                       |  |  |  |
|  |                         |                                 |          |                       |  |  |  |
|  | Rose                    | Coctail                         | T5 7     |                       |  |  |  |
|  | Rosemary                | Huntington                      | T5 34    |                       |  |  |  |
|  |                         |                                 |          |                       |  |  |  |
|  |                         |                                 |          |                       |  |  |  |

|                               |                              |          |                          |  |  |  |
|-------------------------------|------------------------------|----------|--------------------------|--|--|--|
| S                      |                              |          |                          |  |  |  |
|                               |                              |          |                          |  |  |  |
| Salvia uliginosa              | Bog sage                     | T2 13    |                          |  |  |  |
| Saponaria lempergia           | Soapwort                     | T1 6     | T2 7                     |  |  |  |
| Silene vulgaris               | Moss campion - Maritima      | T1 53    |                          |  |  |  |
| Solanum crispum               | Chilean potato vine          | T1 18    |                          |  |  |  |
| Sollya heterophylla           | Bluebell creeper             | T2 7     | 3' 6' with support       |  |  |  |
| Spirea densiflora             |                              | T3 6     |                          |  |  |  |
|                               |                              |          |                          |  |  |  |
| Stachys byzantina             | Lambs ears - Helen von Stein | T5 6     |                          |  |  |  |
| Stachys byzantina             | Lambs ears - Silver Carpet   |          | Shooting Star 1 flat     |  |  |  |
| Symphoicarpus albus           | Snowberry                    | T3 20    |                          |  |  |  |
| Symphoicarpus albus variegata | Snowberry                    | T3 3     |                          |  |  |  |
| Symphytum orientale           | White Comfrey                | T1 18    |                          |  |  |  |
|                               |                              |          |                          |  |  |  |
|                               |                              |          |                          |  |  |  |
| T                      |                              |          |                          |  |  |  |
|                               |                              |          |                          |  |  |  |
| Tanacetum parthenium aureum   | Golden Feverfew              | T2, 4 22 |                          |  |  |  |
| Teucrium chamaedrys           |                              | T5 14    | Also behind greenhouse 2 |  |  |  |
|                               |                              |          |                          |  |  |  |
| Tubarose                      |                              | T2 6     |                          |  |  |  |
|                               |                              |          |                          |  |  |  |
| U                      |                              |          |                          |  |  |  |

| 2020 AUGUST WILLOWSIDE PLANT LIST v 14                                          |                                   |             |                                                                                                                                                                                            |              |              |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|-------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------|--------------|
| PLANT NAME                                                                      | COMMON NAME                       | ZONES       | DESCRIPTION                                                                                                                                                                                | # PLANT      | LOCA         |
| LOCA = Locations R = Row, Tbl = Table, GH1 = Green House 1, GH2 = Green House 2 |                                   |             |                                                                                                                                                                                            |              |              |
| * California Native                                                      |                                   |             |                                                                                                                                                                                            |              |              |
| Abutilons                                                                | Flowering Maple                   | 12-24       | Evergreen perennials with upright, arching growth from from 10" to 8' depending on variety. Main bloom season in spring, but can bloom all year.                                           |              |              |
| A. Apollo                                                                       |                                   |             | 5-10' H x 3'W Regular water, upright arching habit, medium yellow flowers spring and summer                                                                                                | 15           | Tbl C        |
| A. Dwarf Red                                                                    |                                   |             | Really red-orange, 15"-18"                                                                                                                                                                 |              | R16          |
| A. Halo                                                                         |                                   |             | Low, compact blossoms are up to 2" across, pale apricot, 4'-5', ok down to 12-15o F with protection.                                                                                       | 22           | Tbl B        |
| A. megapotamicum "Paisley"                                                      |                                   |             | Bright speckled foliage, somewhat vining, 3'-5'. Appreciates some pruning, attracts hummingbirds.                                                                                          | 5            | Shade        |
| A. Red Princess                                                                 |                                   |             | 8' H x 6' W Upright dense bushy growth, very large, deep red, drooping flowers.                                                                                                            | 10           | Tbl B, R16   |
| A. Savitzii                                                                     |                                   |             | Greyish green leaves with broad ivory margins and apricot pink flowers. 3'-4'                                                                                                              | 10,10        | Tbl E, R16   |
| A. Souvenir de Bonn                                                             |                                   |             | Broad green leaves edged in creamy white with pink flowers. 3'-9'                                                                                                                          | 10           | Tbl C        |
| A. Tangerine                                                                    |                                   |             | 6'-8' , tangerine orange blossoms                                                                                                                                                          | 10           | R16, Tbl C   |
| A. Teardrop                                                                     |                                   |             | Drooping red and yellow blossoms, 4'-8'. Attracts butterflies and hummingbirds.                                                                                                            | 15, 13, many | Tbl B,E, R16 |
| Achilla millifolium*                                                            | Sonoma Coast                      | 14-24       | 12" H, Bright green leaves topped with compact, white flower heads. Sun, part shade, drought tolerant, but best with some water                                                            | 10, 15       | Tbl 3, 6     |
| Achilla millifolium*                                                            | Shell Beach                       | 14-24       | 12" H, Greyer leaves topped with pure white flower heads. Sun, part shade, drought tolerant, but best with some water. Deer resistant.                                                     | 28           | Tbl 3, 6     |
| Acorus gramineus                                                                | Japanese sweet flag               | 3b-10,14-24 | 3"-5" H, Semi evergreen leaves rise from slowly creeping rhizomes, forms large circular clumps. Light shade, ample water.                                                                  | 20           | Shadehouse   |
| Agapanthus                                                                      | Nile lily                         | 6-9, 12-24  | Large, evergreen strap like leaves, with blue flowers in clusters of 20-50. Drought hardy, full sun or part shade, attracts butterflies.                                                   | 22           | end rows     |
| Agave amica                                                                     | Tuberose                          | 7-9, 14-24  | 1.5' H, long, grass-like leaves, rhizome with bulb top and tuberous roots, single flowers in summer or fall with powerfully fragrant white flowers. Full sun, regular water while growing. | 5            | GH2          |
| Ajuga reptans                                                                   | Caitlins Giant                    | 1-24        | Low groundcover, large, bronzy leaves and blue flowers to 8" tall. Regular water, full sun to part shade. Need good drainage.                                                              | 16           | Tbl 1        |
| Alstromeria                                                                     | Peruvian lily-purple, red         | 14-24       | 18" H x 24"W, some shade in hottest areas, regular water, native to South America                                                                                                          | 6, 2         | Tbl 4        |
| Anemone x hybrida                                                               | 1Japanese anemone white, lavender | 2b-24       | lemon scented foliage with pink flowers in dense flower heads. Needs good drainage, 2'-4', flowers to 6'. Attracts hummingbirds , sun, moderate water.                                     | 13           | Shadehouse   |
| Aquilegia species                                                               | purple                            | various     | 2'H x 1'W, Grows in shade, regular water. Finely divided green leaves, blooms in spring, let seedheads dry to insure more plants. Plants die after 3-4 years. Likes well drained soil.     | 2            | Shadehouse   |
| Archtostryphylus densiflora                                                     | Howard McMinn                     | 14-24       | 4-6'H x 6' W One of the most popular and easy to grow manzanitas. Upright and spreading, blooms in Feb. and March when few pollinator plants are available. Beloved of hummingbirds.       | 7            | Tbl 6        |
| Arctostaphylos edmundsii*                                                       | Carmel Sur                        | 14-24       | 1'H x 6' W, Low growingground cover with grey-green leaves and pink flowers (tho rarely blooms). Drought tolerant, especially in part shade, tolerates summer water.                       | 30           | Tbl 6        |

|                                 |                                   |                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                |       |            |
|---------------------------------|-----------------------------------|------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|------------|
| Ardisia japonica         | Maleberry                         | USDA 7-9               | 10" groundcover spreads by suckers. Not drought tolerant. Evergreen, shiny, leathery leaves, 0.5" white and pink star shaped flowers in spring.                                                                | 20    | Tbl D      |
| Aspidistra elatior       | Cast iron plant                   | 12-24 or indoors       | 1' x 1', part to full shade, good in dark places, tough, easy to grow. Regular water, good as house plant. Grows best in porous, rich, soils. Spreads slowly by rhizomes.                                      | 12    | Shadehouse |
| Artemisia pycnocephala*  | Davids Choice                     | 4-5, 7-9, 14-17, 19-24 | 12" H x 2' W, Woody perennial native to beaches in Northern California, stems are crowded with soft, white or grey leaves divided into narrow lobes. Spikes of very small yellow flowers in spring and summer. | 14    | Tbl 6      |
| Aster novi-belgii        | New York aster 30" Woods Blue 16" | 1-24                   | 30" x 2', Native to north east US, tall with clusters of blue or pink flowers, full sun or part shade, regular water. Woods is blue flowers 16" tall.                                                          | 6,12  | Tbl 1, 4   |
| Asteriscus maritimus     | Gold Coin Daisy                   | 15-24                  | 1' x 4' Mediterranean native, attractive green groundcover with bright yellow daisy flowers. Full sun, low to mod. water, tolerates poor soil. Attracts bees.                                                  | 14    | Tbl 2      |
| Azara microphylla        | Boxleaf Azara                     | 14-24                  | Evergreen shiny, dark green foliage on small tree to 18'. Fluffy, yellow flowers with good scent, needs good drainage and regular fertilizer.                                                                  | 11    | Tbl 14     |
| Baccharus pilularis*     | Pigeon Point                      | 14-24                  | 2' H x 6' W, Native to No. Calif., Smaller bushy shrub, drought hardy, full or part sun.                                                                                                                       | 8. 2  | Tbl 6, 10  |
| Baccharus pilularis*     | consanguinea                      | 14-24                  | 3-6' H x 6'W, Native to No. Calif. , Bushy evergreen shrub, near coast needs no water, inland monthly water. Needs shearing once a year to look good.                                                          | 5     | Tbl 6      |
| Baccharus pilularis*     | Twin Peaks                        | 14-24                  | 3'H x 6' W, Bushy shrub has small dark green leaves and moderate growth rate, drought tolerant                                                                                                                 | 5     | Tbl 6      |
| Baccharus pilularis*     | Coyote bush                       | 14-24                  | 6'H x 6'W, Native to Oregon, Calif. And Baja Bright green leaves on dense shrub. Sun, tolerates drought.                                                                                                       | 12    | Tbl 6      |
| Berberis thunbergii      | Crimson Pygmy                     | 2b-24                  | 2' H x 3' W The most widely sold Japanese barberry, intensely colored in the sun, sets few berries. Easy to grow, very thorny, good informal hedges.                                                           | 0     | Tbl A      |
| Berberis thunbergii      | Orange Rocket                     | 2b-24                  | 4' H x 3' W New foliage starts out vibrant coral and fades to ruby red in summer, deciduous. Easy care, full sun to part shade, moderate water. Needs good drainage.                                           | 4     | Tbl A      |
| Bilbergia nutans         | Queens Tears                      | 16-24                  | 1.5', South American bromeliad with shiny, spiny strap like leaves and showy red, green, blue and yellow drooping flowers. Vigorous, easily propagated.                                                        | 15    | Tbl 2      |
| Brugmansia cubensis      | Charles Grimaldi                  | 12-24                  | 8'-10', Lovely, with huge orange yellow flowers. Loves heat, humidity and sun, requires rich soil and regular water. May die back to roots after frost, but will regrow from roots.                            | 14    | GH2        |
| Buddleia                 | purple                            | 12-24                  | 10'H & W, vigorous plant, drought hardy, attracts butterflies, best in full sun, regular water.                                                                                                                | 22    | Tbl 2, 5   |
| Bulbine frutescens       | yellow, Hallmark                  | 9, 12-24               | 1' x 3' South African perennial - Long, fleshy green leaves like pencils, with spikes of yellow or orange flowers. Sun, low water, good ground cover.                                                          | 25    | Tbl 4, 5   |
| Calamagrostis            | Karl Foerster                     | 2B-24                  | Erect, somewhat arching clumps of narrow, bright green leaves 2-3' high, 4' wide. 6' flower spikes in late spring-early summer.                                                                                | 20    | Tbl 12     |
| Calceolaria integrifolia | Kentish Hero                      | 14-24                  | 2' H x 2" W small shrublet, part sun, regular water. An old variety from England, blooms orange and age darker, long bloom period from spring thru fall. Native to Guatamala, hardy to 240 F.                  | 11    | Shade Hse  |
| Calindrinia grandiflora  |                                   | frost sensitive        | 2' x 2' Native to Chile . Forms a dense mount of succulent like leaves with bright pink/purple flowers on long stems. Frost sensitive, drought tolerant, needs good drainage, full sun.                        | 12,12 | TBL C, 5   |
| Campanula poscharskyana  | Serbian bellflower-blue           | 14-24                  | 8" Vigorous, spreading clump with star-shaped 1" blue flowers in spring. Reg. water, shady groundcover.                                                                                                        | 6,18  | Tbl C, 2,  |

|                             |                        |                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |            |                    |
|-----------------------------|------------------------|------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|--------------------|
| Campanula poscharskyana     | white                  | 14-24            | 8" Vigorous, spreading clump with star-shaped 1" white flowers in spring. Reg. water, shady groundcover.                                                                                                                                               | 12         |                    |
| Cannas                      | misc.                  | 12-24            | Donated - variety of colors4'-6', regular water, rich, well-drained soil                                                                                                                                                                           | 12,12      | Tbl D, 4           |
| Cannas                      | Apricot pink, misc.    | 12-24            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | 22         | Tbl E, 4           |
| Cannas                      | Yellow w red spots     | 12-24            | 4-6' with green foliage and yellow flowers                                                                                                                                                                                                             | 5          | Tbl 4              |
| Carex divulsa               | Berkeley sedge         |                  | 2' x 2' Always looks green and lush, thrives in both sun and shade. Tough and carefree, use as edge for path. Drought tolerant, but greener with water. Native to Eruope.                                                                              | 12         | Tbl D              |
| Caryopteris Incana          | Common Bluebeard       | 4-9              | 14"-24", Small, blue flower clusters top upright Asian shrub. Needs good drainage                                                                                                                                                                      | 5          | GH2                |
| Ceanothus cuneatus*         | flat form - Buckbrush  | 14-24            | 1-2' H x 6' W Pale blue, fragrant flowers in spring draws pollinators, birds love the seeds in fall. Excellent groundcover for hot, dry banks- needs no water once established. Needs full sun, good drainage.                                         | 20         | Tbl 6              |
| Ceanothus gloriosas*        | Anchor Bay             | 14-24            | 1.5'H x 6'W, Dense, low growing groundcover, very dense. Dark green spiny leaves, medium blue flowers. Part sun in hot areas, low water.                                                                                                               | 5          | Tbl 6              |
| Ceanothus griseus h.*       | Yankee Point           | 14-24            | 3'H x 9'W, Shiny dark green leaves on spreading, mounding plant - medium blue flowers. Sun, part-shade low water.                                                                                                                                      | 32, 20, 80 | Tbl A, 6, Back GH2 |
| Centaurea gymnocarpa        | Dusty Miller           | 8-24             | 2'H x 1'W, White, finely divided leaves, purple flowers, very drought tolerant but can take irrigation. Cut back after flowering.                                                                                                                      | 0          | Tbl E              |
| Cerastostigma griffithii    | Burmese Plumbage       | 14-24            | 3' H x 3' W Himalayan native has intense blue blooms that bloom all summer. Full sun to part shade, regular water.                                                                                                                                     | 0          | Tbl 2              |
| Cerastostigma willmottainum | Chinese plumbago       | 2b-10            | 14"-24" -Low growing plants grow with intense blue flowers- bloom summer to late fall. Tolerates inconsistent watering                                                                                                                                 | 0          | Tbl 1              |
| Chasmanthium latifolium     | Sea Oat Grass          | 2-10,14-24       | 2'-4', Blue-green bamboo like leaves form clumps slowly, 4' spikes of flowers like flattened oat seeds turn coppery in fall. Prune before spring growth, not aggressive. Partial shade, regular water.                                                 | 10         | R-17               |
| Chlorophytum comosum        | Spider plant           | 19-24            | Native to So. Africa, 1-3' H x 2'W, flowers in long spikes, which also form mini plants at ends, good for hanging houseplant, or outside in shade. Reg. water.                                                                                         | 10         | Shadehouse         |
| Choisya ternata             | Mexican Orange Blossom | 12-24            | 6'-8', moderate water, attracts bees, evergreen leaves and fragrant white blossoms in late winter.                                                                                                                                                     | 6,12       | Tbl 10, GH2        |
| Chondropetalum elephantinum | Cape rush              | 14-24            | 4'H x 6'W Native to So. Africa, striking, elegant accent in pot or ground. Full sun or part shade, ample water.                                                                                                                                        | 13         | Tbl 9              |
| Chrysanthemum               |                        |                  | orange and white                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | 7          | Tbl 2              |
| Cistus p. "Sunset"          | Magenta rockrose       | 14-24            | 2' H x 8' W, Grey green leaves with dark pink flowers. Low water, full sun.                                                                                                                                                                            | 0          | Tbl 4, 13          |
| Cistus Salviifolius         | Sage leaf rockrose     | 14-24            | 2' H x 6' W, Light grey-green leaves are crinkley, profuse show of white flowers with yellow spots in spring. Low water, full sun - good bank cover.                                                                                                   | 12         | Tbl 5, 13, R18     |
| Clematis montana rubra      | 14-18                  | Anemone clematis | Native to Himalyas, climber to 20', decidious vine with massive displays of 2" pale pink flowers in spring, Shade, regular water, prune after blooming.                                                                                                | 5          | Shadehouse         |
| Coleonema pulchellum        | Breath of Heaven       | 7-9              | 3' tall x 6' wide Evergreen shrubs with slender branches that are fragrent when brushed or bruised. Tiny pink or white flowers bloom freely over winter and spring, drought tolerant once established. Best in full sun to part shade. From So. Africa | 15         | Tbl 5              |
| Coleonema pulchellum        | Golden Sunset          | 7-9              | Has yellow folliage, grows 1.5' x 4' , pale pink fragrent flowers.                                                                                                                                                                                     | 6,12       | TBL B, 2           |
| Coleonema p.                | Red                    | 7-9              | Darker red-pink flowers                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | 12         | Tbl D              |

|                               |                                |                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |        |             |
|-------------------------------|--------------------------------|-----------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|-------------|
| Coprosma repens               |                                |                 | Fast growing shrubs, drought tolerant once established, beautiful, glossy evergreen foliage, can be frost sensitive. Deer resistant                                                                                                                                                                               |        |             |
| Coprosma repens               | County Park Red                | 14-24           | 3'x3'. Deep red, intensely shiny leaves.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | 14     | Tbl 11      |
| Coprosma repens               | Inferno                        | 14-24           | 4'-5', Colorful shrub with green leaves lined with lime green edged in red then turning brilliant pink and deep red fall and winter.                                                                                                                                                                              | 0      | Tbl 13      |
| Coprosma repens               | Lemon Lime                     | 14-24           | 3'x3', Compact evergreen shrub with lime green and yellow foliage.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | 6      | Tbl 4       |
| Convolvulus mauritanicas      | Ground morning glory           | 12-24           | 2' H x 3' W Soft, grey-green, evergreen leaves and lavender blue flowers bloom spring thru fall. Needs good drainage and regular water.                                                                                                                                                                           | 20     | GH1         |
| Convolvulus cneorum           | Bush morning glory, Snow Angel | 7-9, 12-24      | Bush morning glory, 2-4' tall, silver grey leaves, white flowers, bloom spring to fall, sun to lt. shade, good drainage, low to moderate water.                                                                                                                                                                   | 9,14   | Tbl A, 4    |
| Cornus sericea* (stolonifera) | Red Twig dogwood               | 14-21           | 8'H x 12'W Grown for brilliant red fall foliage, native to moist places. Oval green leaves and small 2" clusters of flowers in spring. Shade tolerant.                                                                                                                                                            | 5      | Tbl 3       |
| Cymbidium orchids             | misc. orange and yellow        | frost sensitive | One of the easier orchids for care, water 2x week, filtered or morning sun, can tolerate potting soil, fertilize from Feb. to June.                                                                                                                                                                               | 30,9   | TBL D, GH1  |
| Daylily                       | Tiny Pumpkin                   |                 | 18" x 18" Light orange with green throat, full sun to partial shade,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | 4      | Tbl C       |
| Daylily                       | White with purple edge         |                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | 0      | Tbl 2       |
| Daylily                       | Red/Orange                     |                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | 41, 22 | Tbl C, R14, |
| Daylily                       | Repeat yellow                  |                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | 4      | Tbl C       |
| Daylily                       | Going Bananas                  |                 | 2' x 2', Lemon yellow, slightly fragrant, long blooming daylily. One of the best rebloomers                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | 6      | Tbl B, C    |
| Dianella tasmanica            | Blaze                          | 8, 9, 14-24     | 2'-4', Narrow, green, upright leaves, spreads slowly by rhizomes. Spring or summer has blue spikes of flowers, leaves may turn red with cooler temps. Native to Australia, Tasmania, good replacement for New Z. Flax for hot, sunny locations. Regular water.                                                    | 15     | GH 2        |
| Echium fastuosum              | Pride of Maderia               | varies          | 3'-5' with spikes of purple-blue, very attractive to bees and pollinators. OK in dry, warm soil with good drainage.                                                                                                                                                                                               | 13     | GH2         |
| Echium wildpretii             | Tower of Jewels                | 15-24           | 6-10' H x 2' W, Biannual with soft grey leaves the first year and a tall column spike the second year with rosy red flowers along it's length, then dies. Can produce many seeds and seedlings. From the Canary Islands, needs good drainage, little or no water in mild climates. Needs full sun, good drainage. | 12     | GH 1&2      |
| Epilobium canum*              | Calistoga                      | 14-24           | 1.5'H x 3'W, Forms a spreading mat of fuzzy, gray leaves. Flowers are orange-red trumpet shaped. Full sun, occasional deep water, cut back in fall to rejuvenate.                                                                                                                                                 | 0      | Tbl 6, R17  |
| Erigeron glaucas*             | Cape Sebastian                 | 4-6, 22-24      | Low form of seaside daisy, 2-3"H x 2'W, one inch wide lavender blooms with yellow centers bloom profusely thru spring and summer. Light shade, drought tolerant, better with some water.                                                                                                                          | 5      | Tbl 3       |
| Erigeron glaucas*             | Sea Breeze                     | 4-6, 22-24      | 1' H x 1.5 W', Spreading clump with large pink flowers. Sun/ part sun, low water.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | 5,5    | Tbl 3, 6    |
| Erigeron karvinkianus         | Santa Barbara daisy            | 4-24            | 10"H x 3' W, Native to Mexico. Dainty, trailing plant with 3/4" white to pink daisy-like flowers. Always in bloom, good ground cover, drought tolerant. Sun or part shade.                                                                                                                                        | 12     | TBL 1       |
| Eriogonum fasciculatum*       | Calif. Buckwheat Upright form  | 12-24           | Upright spreading shrub, 6' H x 8' W, low water, full to part sun. Evergreen, small needle like leaves, tight clusters of creamy white flowers, loved by pollinators and birds, deer resistant, low water.                                                                                                        | 16     | Back GH2    |

|                           |                                      |               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |       |                       |
|---------------------------|--------------------------------------|---------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|-----------------------|
| Eriogonum fasciculatum*   | Calif. BuckwheatWarriner Lytle   | 12-24         | large, robust climber, with small, delicate pink buds and flowers. Blooms year round, drought tolerant once established.                                                                                                                                | 9, 25 | Tbl 3, Back ofGH2 |
| Eriophyllum lanatum*      | Siskyou- commonwooly sunflower   | 12-24         | 6" H x 3' W Evergreen grey green foliage forms low mats, blooms bright yellow flowers over a long period. Full or part sun, good drainage, infrequent water, attracts pollinators.                                                                      | 12    | TBL 3                 |
| Euonymus fortunei         | winter creeper -Woolong Ghost    | 2b-17         | Evergreen vine or shrub, 8-10" H x 2' W, sun or shade, takes hot sun better than ivy, native to China. Dark green leaves with white veins, 1-2" long, inconspicuous flowers. Moderate to regular water.                                                 | 18    | Tbl A                 |
| Euphorbia characias       | Glacier Blue                         | 4-24          | 2' H x 2' W Stunning plant with grey blue leaves with creamy white margins. Full to part sun, moderate water, sap and plants can be toxic. Flowering stalks should be cut at base when dry.                                                             | 5     | Tbl 10                |
| Euphorbia                 | Shorty                               | 4-24          | 1.5' H x 1.5' W Striking plant with blue grey foliage that tinge red in cold weather. Full or part sun, drought tolerant.                                                                                                                               | 9     | Tbl 10                |
| Euphorbia tirucalli       | Pencil milkbush                      | 13-24         | Fast growing to possible 30', usually much smaller, multi- trunks with tiny leaves only on active growing tips.                                                                                                                                         | 5     | GH2                   |
| Euphorbia wulfunii        | Medit. Spurge                        | 4-24          | 3-4' H x 3.W, Upright stems with spiraled blue-green leaves, and chartreuse flowers in spring until summer. Poisonous, deer resistant, gopher resistant. Full sun, drought tolerant, likes some water in summer. Attracts hummingbirds and butterflies. | 10    | Tbl 10                |
| Festuca glauca            | Blue fescue - ElijahBlue         | 14-24         | 12'H x 10"W Native to Europe, dense, narrow tufts of fine, silver grey leaves, drought tolerant once established. Full sun                                                                                                                              | 6     | Tbl 9                 |
| Festuca idahoensis*       | Idaho blue fescue- Siskiyou blue | 14-24         | 24" H & W Native from Canada to California and Colorado, silvery blue foliage in dense clumps. Tolerates shade and wet winter soil. Best in sun, moderate water.                                                                                        | 4     | Tbl 6                 |
| Festuca                   | Tall blue                            | 14-24         | Non-native bluer fescue, 1-2' tall.                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | 9     | Tbl A                 |
| Festuca rubra             | non-native redfescue             |               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | 6     | Tbl 9                 |
| Filipendula purpurea      | Meadowsweet                          | 3b-914-17 | 3-4' red plumes above 2' foliage, Moist soil, winter dormant. Full to part sun.                                                                                                                                                                         | 5     | Across T14            |
| Frageria vesca*           | Montana de Oro                       | 8-24          | 4" H x 4' W, Excellent groundcover for shade, smothers weeds, tasty fruit. Occasional water , flower color white.                                                                                                                                       | 14    | Tbl 3                 |
| Fuchsia thymifolia        | minature fuchsia                     | 14-24         | Erect, grows to 5', with tiny glossy leaves and red-pink flowers that age to red. Part-sun, shade, moderate water. Resistent to fuchsia mite                                                                                                            | 6     | TBL 2                 |
| Geranium macrorrhizum     | "IngwersensVariety"              | 1-24          | 10" H, fast spreading ground cover, blush pink flowers in spring. Best with part shade, regular water.                                                                                                                                                  | 14    | TBL 1                 |
| Geranium pyrenaicum       | Bill Wallis                          | 12-24         | 15" H x 20" W Deep purple cloud of color, tough and easy. When thru blooming, cut to 1", fertilize and will come back in bloom. Best in rich soil, Part shade, regular water.                                                                           | 7, 16 | TBL 1, GH2            |
| Geranium x cantabrigiense | Biokovo cranesbill                   | 1-24          | 6" Excellent ground cover, spreads slowly but widely, leaves scented, white flowers blushed pink. Best in part shade, regular water                                                                                                                     | 12    | TBL 1                 |
| Helianthemum nummularium  | Ben Fhada                            | 14-24         | 6-8" H x 2' W, Foliage silver-grey, 1" bright yellow flowers in spring. Good coastal, dry, sunny, rocky locations. Low water, bee friendly.                                                                                                             | 3     | Tbl 5                 |
| Helianthus augustifolia   | narrow-leaf sunflower            | varies        | 3'-6', Profusion of yellow flowers starting in early autumn, moderate water, loved by bees and butterflies. Seeds useful for finches, sparrows and other seed-loving birds.                                                                             | 0     | Tbl 4, 12             |
| Helleborus hybrids        | Christmas rose                       | varies        | 2' H x 2' W, part to full shade, regular water. Distinctive, long lived plants with nodding bell-like flowers in winter, in shades of rose, lavender and green. Attractive, leathery foliage.                                                           | 22    | Shadehouse            |

|                                    |                                    |                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |        |                                     |
|------------------------------------|------------------------------------|--------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|-------------------------------------|
| Heterotheca villosa*               | San Bruno Mtns                     | 12-24              | 10" H x 18" W, Tough native yellow daisy for rock garden or dry places. Evergreen foliage makes a low mat. Sun, low water.                                                                                                                                          | 7      | Tbl 3                               |
| Hibiscus trionum                   | modesty, shoofly                   | Protect from frost | a short-lived perennial native to old world, with compact, deeply-lobed dark green leaves, and white flowers with a deep red eye. Naturalized thru-out the US. Can be weedy or invasive. 2' H x 1' W                                                                | 16, 22 | Tbl 4, R16                          |
| Hydrangea hybrids                  | misc, blue, pink, white            |                    | 6'x 6', Decidious shrub with beautiful, large, round balls of pure white flower clusters. Part to full shade, moderate water.                                                                                                                                       | 20, 21 | Shade house, GH1                    |
| Hydrangea macrophylla              | Sister Theresa                     |                    | 6'x 6', Decidious shrub with beautiful, large, round balls of pure white flower clusters. Part to full shade, moderate water.                                                                                                                                       | 0      | GH1                                 |
| Hypericum perforatum               | St. Johns Wort                     | zones vary         | All forms bear 5 petaled cup shaped yellow flowers. Blooms may be clustered or solitary. Neat, green foliage, best in mild, moist regions.                                                                                                                          | 11, 24 | Tbl 4, 5                            |
| Iris*                              | Pacific Coast Hybrid               | 4-9, 14-24         | 8"-24", Eleven species have been hybridized to produce colors of white, blue, pink, purple, and yellow. Part sun to light shade, moderate to low water in summer. Intense heat and poor drainage can be fatal.                                                      | 25     | Tbl 1, 6, Native area End of row 16 |
| Juncus patens*                     | Carmens Grey                       | 4-9, 14-24         | 2' H & W, native to Calif. and Oregon, with stiff upright grey or green stems, tolerates more heat and drought than most, but thrives in moist soil or shallow water.                                                                                               | 7      | Tbl 9                               |
| Kniphofia                          | Red hot poker                      | 3-9, 14-24         | Tall stems that look like glowing torches. Fine toothed, grass-like foliage. 3'- 6', Full sun to part shade, low to moderate water. Flowers attract hummingbirds.                                                                                                   | 12, 30 | Tbl 4, R16 plant area               |
| Lamium                             | Spotted dead nettle                |                    | Vigorous roundcover, shade or part shade, regular water, green leaves with center white stripe, pink or white flowers in spring.                                                                                                                                    | 34     | Tbl 1                               |
| Laurus nobilis                     | Bay Laurel                         | 5-9, 12-24         | 12'-20' tall, native to Mediterranean, small yellow flowers, aromatic leaves used in cooking. Dense leaves good for screen, moderate water, sun or part shade.                                                                                                      | 25     | Ground by R18                       |
| Lavandula angustifolia             | Superblue                          | 2-24               | 1' x 5' rich super purple/blue flowers on grey-green plants flower late spring - summer. Grow in full sun; needs good drainage.                                                                                                                                     | 7      | Tbl 8                               |
| Lavandula stoechas                 | Spanish type-Avonview or Marshwood | 4-24               | 3' x 3', Often flowering twice, beloved of bees, tolerant of drought, frost and coastal conditions. Deer resistant.                                                                                                                                                 | 11     | Tbl 8                               |
| Leonotis leonaria + varigated type | Lions Tail                         | 8-24               | 4'-6', South African shrub with whirls of downy orange flowers, summer to fall. Low water, attracts hummingbirds.                                                                                                                                                   | 2, 8   | Tbl 10, GH2                         |
| Leptinella squalida                | Brass Buttons                      | USDA 4-7           | Very low growing, vigorous spreading plant good for rock gardens, between flagstones, and lawns where turf won't grow. Small yellow green flowers in spring, tolerates variety of light and soil conditions. Does not like very hot, sunny spots. Consistent water. | 7      | Tbl 5                               |
| Leptospermum macrocarpum           | Australian Tea tree Dark Shadows   | 12-14              | 15' Tiny reddish leaves turn purplish bronze with 1" chartreuse yellow blooms in spring.                                                                                                                                                                            | 6      | Across Tb l14                       |
| Leucadendron salignum              | Silvan Red                         | 16-24              | 6' H & W Green leaves tipped with red on red stems, attractive evergreen shrub, needs good drainage, drought tolerant. Native to So. Africa                                                                                                                         | 9      | Tbl 15                              |
| Leucadendron salignum              | Wilsons (Winter's?)Red             | 16-24              | 4' H x 6' W Dense evergreen shrub with narrow purplish red leaves in winter. Cream and red bracts form a tulip shape around the actual flowers. Requires full sun and good drainage, drought tolerant.                                                              | 10     | GH 2                                |
| Leucadendron salignum              | Wilsons Wonder                     | 16-24              | 6' H x 8' W Beautiful evergreen shrub with green foliage and bright yellow bracts fading to orange in winter/spring. Full sun, good drainage, and frost and drought tolerant.                                                                                       | 25     | GH1                                 |
| Lessingia filaginiflora*           | Silver Carpet - Calif. Beach aster | 4-24               | 4" H x 5' W Foliage is dense, silvery and spoon shaped. A fast-growing, dense groundcover with small daisy-like lavender pink flowers. Attracts butterflies, tolerant of heat, clay, drought.                                                                       | 12     | Tbl 4                               |

|                             |                                              |                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |        |                     |
|-----------------------------|----------------------------------------------|-----------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|---------------------|
| Leucanthemum x superbum     | Shasta daisy -2 types Short = 16" tall = 24" | 1-24            | 0.5'-4', Burbanks original hybrid, dark green leaves, large 2"-4" white flowers, full sun, moderate water, spreads slowly by underground roots.                                                                                                    | 6,6,30 | TBL 4,5,back of GH2 |
| Liriope muscari             | Blue lilyturf                                | 14-24           | 12" Dark green grass-like perennial grows in clumps that bloom blue spike flowers in spring. Full sun to part shade, regular water, tolerates drought.                                                                                             | 4      | Tbl 1               |
| Lonicera pileata            | Box leaf Honeysuckle                         |                 | 2'H x 8'W, Evergreen box-like leaves and low spreading habit, has small, creamy fragrant flowers in May and violet berries in winter. Salt tolerant, sun to light shade, occasional water.                                                         | 5      | Tbl 11              |
| Lysimachia nummularia       | Creeping Jenny                               | 1-9, 14-24      | Groundcover, full sun by coast, partial shade where hot, beautiful gold leaves on creeping stems, rooting as it spreads. Regular water                                                                                                             | 10     | Tbl 1               |
| Miscanthus sinensis         | Japanese silver grass                        | 2-24            | 3-7' H & W Native to Asia, dense clumps of tall grass, blooms in summer and late fall. Full sun or part shade, moderate water.                                                                                                                     | 11     | Tbl 9               |
| Muhlenbergia capillaris     | Pink Muhley grass                            | 4-24            | 3' H x 6'W, Dark green strap like leaves, airy plumes of pinkish red flowers in spring. Sun, drought tolerant but better looking with water.                                                                                                       | 12     | R 17                |
| Muhlenbergia lindheimeri    |                                              | 6-24            | 5'H & W Native to Texas and Mexico, clumps of tall, arching leaves with flowers spikes to 7'.                                                                                                                                                      | 35     | Tbl 9               |
| Asclepias fascicularis*     | narrowleaf milkweed                          |                 | 3' x3' Perennial native milkweed, winter dormant, clusters of white or pinkish flowers in spring. Primary host plant for Monarch caterpillars. Drought tolerant, CA native                                                                         | 6      | TBL 3               |
| Nassella pulchra*           | Purple needle grass                          |                 | 18"H x 12'W, Native to California grasslands, wavy seeds start out purple and turn light tan. The stems with seeds attached look like a needle and thread, tolerates dry clay, self sows but not invasive, roots can go down 20'. Sun, part shade. | 15     | Tbl 12              |
| Nepeta faassenii            | Catmint - Six Hills Giant                    | 1-24            | 2' x 3' This plant is broad and vigorous, flowers a deep blue. Full sun or part shade, regular water, attracts bees. Attractive to some cats.                                                                                                      | 6      | Tbl 8               |
| Laurus nobilis              | European bay tree                            | 12-24           | 25-50' H Small tree, slow growing, may take a long time to reach desired growth. Leaves used as spice in cooking.                                                                                                                                  | 22     | R16                 |
| Oenothera macrocarpa incana | Silver Blade                                 | 4-10. 14-24     | Perennial drought-tolerant primrose, native to midwest, silver blue leaves 6"H x 18"W. Needs full sun, good drainage, large 3" yellow flowers spring and summer. Good ground cover, heat tolerant.                                                 | 0      | Tbl 4               |
| Oenothera speciosa          | Mexican evening primrose                     | 2b-24           | 1' H x 3'W or more, spreads by underground rhizomes. White to pink flowers open in spring and summer. Can be aggressive, native to Southwest US and Mexico. Low to moderate water, dies back in fall and winter.                                   | 5      | Tbl 2               |
| Orchids                     | variety                                      | frost sensitive | Mostly cymbidium                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | 49     | Tbl D               |
| Oreganum vulgare            | Oregano                                      | 1-24            | 2'H x 3'W, Oval green leaves, pink flowers in summer, leaves dried or fresh used in many dishes. Full sun, little to moderate water.                                                                                                               | 6      | Tbl 8               |
| Oxalis organa*              | Redwood sorrel                               | 14-24           | 10" H, Spreads by rhizomes, medium green clover-like leaves and white or lavender flowers. Shade, regular water, tolerates wet conditions.                                                                                                         | 8      | TBL 1               |
| Parahebe perfoliata         | From Australia                               | 5-24            | 1.5'-4', Deep blue flowers on grey green leaves. Sprawling mounds bloom profusely in summer.                                                                                                                                                       | 5      | Tbl 10              |
| Penstamon heterophyllus*    | Blue springs - Foothill penstamon            | 12-24           | 16-12" H, Luminous, almost turquoise flowers make this a California favorite. Sun part shade, drought and deer resistant, loved by hummers- butterflies.                                                                                           | 6      | Tbl 6               |
| Penstamon heterophyllus*    | Margarita BOP                                | 12-24           | 2' H x 3' W, Long blooming sky blue flowers that fade to purple. Attracts bees, sun, regular water                                                                                                                                                 | 5      | Tbl 6               |
| Penstemon hybrid            | Bev Jensen                                   | 6-9, 14-24      | 2.4' x 1.5', Rose pink flowers with white throat, sun, part shade, drought and coast tolerant, Deer and gopher resistant.                                                                                                                          | 6      | TBL 5               |

|                          |                                    |            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |      |                         |
|--------------------------|------------------------------------|------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|-------------------------|
| Penstemon hybrid         | Firebird                           | 6-9, 14-24 | 3' Bushy semi- evergreen floriferous perennial with bright, scarlet flowers.                                                                                                                                                             | 24   | Tbl 5, misc. locations  |
| Penstemon hybrid         | Garnet                             | 6-9, 14-24 | H x W 1.5', Long lived penstemon tolerates poor, dry soils, dark pink, fine green foliage. Sun or light shade, medium water, attracts hummingbirds and butterflies.                                                                      | 6, 2 | Tbl 4, 5                |
| Penstemon hybrid         | Holly's White                      | 6-9, 14-24 | 3' Pure white flowers on shrubby plant, large-flowered and long blooming                                                                                                                                                                 | 5    | R 18                    |
| Penstemon hybrid         | Huntington Pink                    | 6-9, 14-24 | 3'H x 1.5' W, Bright pink with white center, Evergreen, drought resistant, Deer and gopher resistant, Attracts butterflies and hummingbirds. Sun, part sun.                                                                              | 0    | Tbl 5                   |
| Penstemon hybrid         | Sour Grapes                        | 6-9, 14-24 | 2' x 1.5', Unusually large bell shaped violet/metallic blue flowers                                                                                                                                                                      | 6    | Tbl 5                   |
| Penstemon hybrid         | Thorn                              | 6-9, 14-24 | 3' x 3' white blushed pink flowers, long blooming                                                                                                                                                                                        | 3    | Tbl 4                   |
| Perovskia atriplicifolia | Russian sage                       | 2-24       | 3'-4' H & W, Tough plant native to Turkey and Iran, full sun, low water. Upright white stems covered with grey leaves, sprays of lavender blue flowers in spring.                                                                        | 5    | Tbl 5                   |
| Phacelia imbricata?*     | Perennial phacelia                 |            | 3' x 3' , perennial phacelia, low water, full sun, good polinator plant, flowers spring with lt. purple or white flowers. Native to Calif.                                                                                               | 6    | TBL 6                   |
| Phlomis                  | Edward Bowles                      | 3b-24      | 4' H x 5'W Sturdy perennial with yellow ball-like flowers on stems 3' tall. Full sun to light shade, with occasional summer water.                                                                                                       | 8    | Tbl 2                   |
| Phlomis lanata           |                                    | 7-24       | 2.5'H x 5' W, Dense, compact plant with wooly, wrinkled leaves. Whirls of deep yellow flowers from spring thru fall. Full sun and little to moderate water.                                                                              | 14   | TBL 4                   |
| Phlomis monocephala      | Jerusalem Sage                     | 12-24      | 4' Compact, bushy shrub with 3" rounded leaves. Ball-like yellow flowers in spring. Drought hardy, full sun                                                                                                                              | 11   | TBL 14                  |
| Phlomis russelliana      | Jerusalem Sage                     | 2-24       | 2' - 3' Heart shaped furry olive green leaves and yellow spikes of flowers. Drought hardy, full sun, partial shade, effective weed suppressing groundcover.                                                                              | 6,12 | Tbl 4, 14               |
| Pittosporum tenuifolium  | Marjorie Channon                   | 9-24       | 8-10' H x 7' W, Light green leaves bordered with creamy white. Full sun, moderate water.                                                                                                                                                 | 3    | TBL D                   |
| Pittosporum tenuifolium  | Silver Sheen other misc. varieties | 9, 14-24   | 5-25' H & W, Fast grower, native to New Zealand, full sun, moderate water.                                                                                                                                                               | 5    | Tbl 11                  |
| Plectranthus neochilus   | Lobster flower                     | 22-24      | 6" Perennial, aromatic, succulent herb groundcover from South Africa, with deep blue and purple flowers. Drought hardy, part shade in hot areas. Hardy to 30 F, somewhat deer resistant, may even repel snails. Needs adequate drainage. | 6    | Tbl 5                   |
| Polygala fruticosa       | Petite Butterflies                 |            | 2-3' H & W, Compact evergreen shrub, likes full sun or part shade, purple pea flowers in summer and fall. Moderate water.                                                                                                                | 12   | GH2                     |
| Prunella vulgaris        | Heal All                           | 2-24       | Creeping perennials that form low dense mats. Tough, tolerant, deep rooted, can overrun other plants. Sun or shade. regular water.                                                                                                       | 4    | Tbl 1                   |
| Roses                    | hybrids                            |            | Many different colors and sizes - from cuttings                                                                                                                                                                                          |      | Rose area               |
| Rosa californica*        | California wild rose               | 14-21      | 3'-6', Pink or white rose that grows from the coast to the foothills, forming thick, prickly thicket. Native to arid regions but grows better in moist soils. Typical red rose hips, can go summer dormant.                              | 25   | Tbl 3, R16, Back of GH2 |
| Rosa woodsii glabrata*   | Mojave wild rose                   | 14-21      | Nice wild rose, not super thorny, good fragrance. Deciduous, 3' H x 5'W, pink flowers in spring, low to moderate water, full sun to part shade. Fruit is edible.                                                                         | 10   | Tbl 3                   |
| Rose - Cecile Brunner    | Climbing - Sweetheart rose.        |            | Large, robust climber, with small, delicate pink buds and flowers. Blooms year round, drought tolerant once established.                                                                                                                 | 3    | Tbl 8                   |
| Rose- Felicia            |                                    |            | Hybrid musk, 7'H x 6'W, Strong shape, glossy foliage, fully double, soft pink, fragrant roses in clusters. Almost every blooming, perfect for cutting.                                                                                   | 11   | ROSE area               |
| Rose - Phyllis Bide      |                                    |            | 12'H & W, Repeat flowering rambler bearing sprays of small apricot-pink flowers, flushed with yellow. Pleasing fragrance, useful for smaller spaces.                                                                                     | 0    | Tbl 5, Between 6 and 9  |

|                            |                                   |             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |            |                   |
|----------------------------|-----------------------------------|-------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|-------------------|
| Rosemarinus officinalis    | Blue Spires,Huntington Carpet | 4-24        | 2'-3', Spreads vigorously, pale blue flowers. Full sun, drought tolerant.                                                                                                                                                        | 12,12      | Tbl 8             |
| Salix integra              | Japanese Dappled Willow           | USDA 4-7    | 4'-6' deciduous shrub, variegated creamy white and green leaves may have pink tinge, yellow catkins, bright red stems. Part sun or shade, does not tolerate hot sun, likes regular water, do not let dry out when first planted. | 23, 10     | Shade house, R-17 |
| Salvia appiana*            | White sage                        | 7-11, 13-24 | 5'x3', Native to So Cal and Baja, aromatic perennial sage with grey fuzzy leaves 3-4" long, long white whirls of flowers in spring, cut back after flowering. Drought hardy.                                                     | 6          | Tbl 5             |
| Salvia chamaedryoides      | Marine Blue                       | 14-24       | 1-2' H & 3' W, Silvery 3/4" leaves and brilliant blue 1" flowers in spring and summer. Tolerates drought, but better with more water, full sun.                                                                                  | 5          | Tbl 4             |
| Salvia clevelandii         | Allen Chickering                  | 12-24       | 4' H & W, Fragrant sage with lavender blue flowers in spring, good for dry sunny areas. Deer resistant, attractive to hummingbirds, bees and butterflies.                                                                        | 20         | Tbl 6             |
| Salvia darcyii             | galeana sage                      | 14-24       | 3'H & W, Native to Mexico, large 1" redish purple flowers from early summer to fall. Full sun, good drainage, moderate water.                                                                                                    | 2          | GH2               |
| Salvia Leucantha           | Mexican bush sage                 | 12-24       | 3'H x 4'W, upright shrub with spikes of purple or white and purple flowers in late summer. Full sun, limit water to every 2 weeks, dies back with frost.                                                                         | 6,12       | TBL 5, GH2        |
| Salvia mexicana            | Limelight                         | 14-24       | 6'H x 3'W, Blooms from early fall thru spring, has striking combination of chartreuse bracts and dark blue flowers. Full to part sun, moderate water, protect from wind. Good under high branching trees.                        | 0          |                   |
| Salvia Phyllis' Fancy      | (x leucantha)                     | 12-24       | 5'H x 4'W, Large, vigorous plant with foot long flower spikes of bicolored flowers of lavender and blue. Full sun, moderate water, attracts hummingbirds.                                                                        | 24         | GH2               |
| Salvia spathacea*          | Hummingbird sage                  | 7-9, 14-24  | 1-2'H x 3' W, spreads by underground rhizomes, flowers rise 1-2' with whirls of dark magenta flowers. Loved by hummingbirds, low water, part shade.                                                                              | 6          | Tbl 3             |
| Salvia Regla               | Royal sage                        | 12-24       | 3'H & W, Native to Texas and Mexico, medium green leaves with 1" bright red flowers early summer and fall. Part sun, moderate water.                                                                                             | 0          | GH2               |
| Salvia Uliginosa           | Bog Sage                          | 14-24       | 4' H & W, Smooth green leaves are topped with sky blue sage blossoms, spreads aggressively thru root rhizomes. Part shade, moderate water.                                                                                       | 6,6        | TBL 2, ROW 16     |
| Salvia Waverly (leucantha) |                                   | 12-24       | 5' H x W, Vigorous, upright plants with white and purple blooms, blooms spring - fall, low water, deer resistant.                                                                                                                | 19         | GH2               |
| Saponaria lempergia        | Soapwort -Max Frei                | 14-24       | 6 "H x 18" W Small green leaves and profusion of 1' pink flowers in summer and fall. Full sun, good drainage, moderate water.                                                                                                    | 12,24      | TBL 1, GH2        |
| Sarcococcia ruscifolia     | Sweet Box                         | 4-9, 14-24  | Evergreen shrub, 4-6' H x 3-7' W, full or part shade, moderate to reg. water, small flowers, very fragrant, red berries.                                                                                                         | 0          | Tbl 2             |
| Sedum                      | Jade Plant                        | 8,9, 14-24  | Succulent, easy to propagate, upright, fleshy growth, drought hardy, low maintenance.                                                                                                                                            | 12         | Tbl A, 11         |
| Sesleria autumnalis        | Autumn Moor grass                 | 14-24       | 1-2' H & W Spiky clumps of perennial narrow, lime green leaves are long lived, drought tolerant.                                                                                                                                 | 25         | Tbl 9             |
| Silene vulgaris            | Moss campion - Maritima           | 14-24       | 6"H x 8' W Forms a low cushion of grey-green leaves, 1" white flowers in summer. Full or part sun, moderate water.                                                                                                               | 12,12      | Tbl C, 1          |
| Solanum jasminoides        | Potato Vine                       | 12-24       | 30' Vines of purple tinged clusters of white flowers, in bloom almost continuously. Cut back to control rampant growth and root runners.                                                                                         | 18         | TBL 11            |
| Solanum crispum            | Chilean Potato Vine, Glasnevin    | 12-24       | 12', modest climber, bears 4" blue flowers with yellow center, fragrant. Full sun or part shade, moderate water. Poisonous if eaten.                                                                                             | 2"- 14, 25 | Tbl A, 1          |

|                                                  |                                                       |                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |           |              |
|--------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------|-----------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|--------------|
| Solidago californica*                            | Western Goldenrod                                     | 1-11 14-23      | 1-2' H & W, Showy yellow perennial that blooms late summer to fall. Sun or part shade, moderate water, attracts pollinating insects.                                                                                        | 3, 4      | TBL 3,6      |
| Spiraea densiflora* (new species name splendens) | Mountain spirea                                       | 12-24           | 3'H & W, Deciduous shrub bears pink flowers in dense clusters in summer. Full/part sun, regular water.                                                                                                                      | 3         | Tbl 3        |
| Spiraea douglasii*                               | Western spirea                                        | 14-24           | Native to Coastal Ranges from California to British Columbia, 4-5' fast growing deciduous shrub, pink clusters of flowers emerge in June - Sept. Prefers moist places, sun to part shade, can be drought tolerant in shade  | 3         | TBL 3        |
| Stachys byzantium                                | Wooly Lambs EarsHelen von Stein,Silver Carpet | 1-24            | 18"H x 36" W Grey fuzzy leaves and spikes of lavender flowers, spreads by surface runners. Full sun or part shade, moderate water. Beloved by bees.                                                                         | 10, 13, 6 | Tbl B, 1, 5  |
| Stipa arundinacea                                | Pheasant tail grass                                   | 14-24           | 2-3' H & W, From New Zealand, forms dense clumps, arching leaves are olive green streaked with orange in summer, completely orange in fall and winter. Full sun to part shade, moderate water.                              | 6         | Tbl 9        |
| Strawberries                                     |                                                       |                 | Fruiting strawberries                                                                                                                                                                                                       | 0         | Tbl C        |
| Streptosolen jamsonii                            | Marmalade bush                                        | 13-24           | 4'-6' Colorful vine from South America with 1.5' orange or yellow flowers all summer. Needs a warm location, good drainage.                                                                                                 | 0         | GH2          |
| Symphoricarpos albus*                            | Snowberry                                             | 12-24           | 6' H & W, Deciduous shrub produces pink flowers followed by white berries. Produces most fruit in sun, tolerant of poor soil, low light, and neglect. Low to moderate water.                                                | 3         | Tbl 3        |
| Symphoricarpos albus*                            | Alba Variegatus                                       | 12-24           | 4' H & W, Slower growing shrub, green leaves with white margins. Shade/ part shade, Low to moderate water.                                                                                                                  | 25        | Tbl B, 3     |
| Symphytum orientale                              | White comfrey                                         | 1-24            | 1'H x 2'W, Deep rooted plant from Europe, furry leaves with white drooping flowers. Spreads freely from roots.                                                                                                              | 7         | Tbl 1        |
| Syringa vulgaris                                 | Common lilac                                          | 1-22            | 10' Green deciduous bushes sucker vigorously produce 10" fragrant lavender clusters in the spring. Needs 2-5 years to bear flowers, Regular water, full to part sun.                                                        | 7         | Tbl 2        |
| Tagetes lemonii compacta                         | Mexican marigold                                      | Hardy to 20o F. | 2-3' H & W, Compact perennial bush with very fragrant, evergreen foliage. Bright yellow flowers summer thru fall, attracts butterflies. Full sun, low to moderate water.                                                    | 6         | Tbl 4        |
| Tanacetum parthenium aureum                      | golden feverfew                                       | 2-24            | 1-3', Chartreuse foliage, compact, small white daisy-like flowers in clusters, strong, peppery aroma to leaves. Attractive to beneficial insects. Easy from seed.                                                           | 6, 14, 3  | Tbl C, 2, 4  |
| Tellima grandiflora*                             | Fringe cups                                           | 14-17           | 1.5'H x 3'W Native from central Calif. To southern Alaska, prefers full to part shade, regular water. Foliage is evergreen in mild climate, flowers are tiny, fringed petals on 8" stalk.                                   | 1         | Tbl 3        |
| Teucrium chamaedrys                              | Germander                                             | 12-24           | Native to Coastal Ranges from California to British Columbia, 4-5' fast growing deciduous shrub, pink clusters of flowers emerge in June - Sept. Prefers moist places, sun to part shade, can be drought tolerant in shade. | 16        | TBL 14       |
| u                                                | cooking herb                                          |                 | Very low growing, spreading form of thyme, good for cooking and flavoring foods. Drought hardy, beloved by bees.                                                                                                            | 12        | Tbl 8        |
| Trachelospermum asiatica                         | The ghost                                             | 6-24            | Groundcover or climber, like star jasmine but with darker green leaves and smaller flowers in creamy white.                                                                                                                 | liner, 3  | Tbl C, Tbl 1 |
| Tulbaghia violacea                               | Society garlic                                        | 13-24           | 1' Narrow blue-green leaves with clusters of 8-20 violet colored flowers in spring and summer. Low water, leaves and flowers have garlic odor when crushed. Leaves can be used in cooking.                                  | 10        | Tbl 4        |
| Verbena bonariensis                              |                                                       | 8-24            | 3'-6' Native to So. America, naturalized in Cal., airy branching stems with purple flowers. Sun, moderate water                                                                                                             | 7         | GH 2         |

|                      |                |       |                                                                                                                                                             |    |        |
|----------------------|----------------|-------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|--------|
| Westringia fruticosa | Smokey         | 14-24 | 4' H x W, Australian shrub with small, white edged leaves, small white flowers bloom midwinter thru spring. Needs good drainage and full sun, little water. | 54 | TBL 13 |
| Westringia fruticosa | Coast rosemary | 14-24 | 3-6'H x 5-10' W Spreading shrub from Australia, medium grey-green leaves have white undersides, white flowers bloom year round in warmer climates.          | 6  | Tbl 4  |

| 4/11/2018                          |         | Shooting Star donations           |        |
|------------------------------------|---------|-----------------------------------|--------|
|                                    |         | *California Native                |        |
|                                    |         |                                   |        |
|                                    | # Flats |                                   | #Flats |
| Abutilons                          |         | *Nassella pulchra - purple needle | 1      |
| Halo                               | 1       | Nepeta - Six Hills Giant          | 1      |
| Moonchimes                         | 1       |                                   |        |
| Red Princess                       | 2.5     | Parahebe perfoliata               | 1      |
| Souvenir de Bonn                   | 1       | Penstamon                         |        |
| Teardrop                           | 1       | Bev Jensen                        | 1      |
| Tiger Eye                          | 1       | Garnet                            | 2      |
|                                    |         | * h. Blue Springs                 | 1      |
| Achilla Millefolium "Shell Beach"  | 2       | Midnight                          | 3      |
| Ajuga "Caitlins Giant"             | 1       | Phlomis lanata                    | 1      |
| Aschlepias physocarpa              | 1       | Phlomis russelliana               | 1      |
| Asteriscus Maritimus               | 2       | Polygala f. - Petite Butterflies  | 1      |
|                                    |         |                                   |        |
| *Baccharus p. Pigeon Pt.           | 1       | Rose - Cecile Brunner             | 1      |
|                                    |         | Rose - Felicia                    | 1      |
| Calamagrostis - Karl Foerstter     | 2       |                                   |        |
| Carex testacea                     | 1       | *Salvia mellifera - Black sage    | 0.5    |
| *Ceanothus g. - Kurt Zadnik        | 1       | Salvia - Phyllis' Fancy           | 1      |
| *Ceanothus Yankee Pt.              | 1       | Salvia - Waverly                  | 1      |
| Coprosma r. Lemon and Lime         | 2       | Scabiosa - Butterfly Blue         | 1      |
| Coreopsis auriculata - Nana        | 1       | Silene vulgaris - Maritima        | 1      |
|                                    |         | Solanum c. - Glasnevin            | 1      |
| Echium fastuosum                   | 2       | Stachys b. - Silver Carpet        | 1      |
| Erigeron x Moerheimii              | 0.5     | Stipa arundinacea                 | 1      |
| *Eriogonum f. - Warriner Lytle     | 1       |                                   |        |
| Euphorbia w. - Shorty              | 1       |                                   |        |
| Euphorbia - Glacier Blue           | 0.5     |                                   |        |
|                                    |         |                                   |        |
| Fuschia thymifolia                 | 2       |                                   |        |
|                                    |         |                                   |        |
| Geranium c. - Biokovo              | 1       |                                   |        |
|                                    |         |                                   |        |
| Helianthus augustifolia            | 1       |                                   |        |
| Hibiscus trionum                   | 1       |                                   |        |
|                                    |         |                                   |        |
| Justicia brandegeana- Shrimp plant | 1       |                                   |        |
|                                    |         |                                   |        |
| Lavender - Grosso                  | 1       |                                   |        |
| Lavender s. - Marshwood            | 2       |                                   |        |

|                                    |   |  |  |  |
|------------------------------------|---|--|--|--|
| Leucadendron salignum - Silvan Red | 1 |  |  |  |
|                                    |   |  |  |  |
| Muhlenbergia lindheimeri           | 1 |  |  |  |

| 9/6/2018                             |         | Shooting Star donations          |        |
|--------------------------------------|---------|----------------------------------|--------|
|                                      |         | *California Native               |        |
|                                      |         |                                  |        |
|                                      | # Flats |                                  | #Flats |
| Abutilons                            |         | Juncus Carmens Grey              | 1      |
| Apollo                               | 1       |                                  |        |
| Kristin Pink                         | 1       | Lavender - Grosso                | 1      |
| Red Princess                         | 1       | Lavender Provence                | 1      |
| Tangerine                            | 1       | Leonotis l.                      | 1      |
| Tiger Eye                            | 1       | Lepicinia hastata                | 1      |
| Achilla Millefolium "Shell Beach"    | 1       | Leucadendron s. Wilsons Wonder   | 1      |
| *Arctostaphylos Carmel Sur           | 1       | Leucadendron Wilsons Red         | 1      |
| " Emerald Carpet                     | 1       |                                  |        |
| " Howard McMinn                      | 1       | Mandevilla laxa                  | 1      |
| " Pacific Mist                       | 1       |                                  |        |
| " Pt. Reyes                          | 1/2     | Nobilis (European bay tree)      | 1      |
| Artemisia pycnocephala Davids Choice | 1       |                                  |        |
|                                      |         | Penstamon                        |        |
| *Baccharus p. Pigeon Pt.             | 1       | Bev Jensen                       | 1      |
| Berberis Crimson Pigmy               | 1/2     | Garnet                           | 2      |
| Berberis Orange Rock                 | 1       | Phlomis lanata                   | 1      |
|                                      |         | Phlomis russelliana              | 1      |
| Calceolaria Kentish Hero             | 1       | Phlomis f. Edward Bowles         | 1      |
| Campanula pos. White                 | 2       | Pittosporum Marjorie Chapman     | 1 1/2  |
| *Ceanothus cuneatus (flat form)      | 1       | Pittosporum Silver Sheen         | 1/2    |
| *Ceanothus Yankee Pt.                | 2       | Polygala f. - Petite Butterflies | 3      |
| Cerastostigma griffithii             | 1       |                                  |        |
| Cerastostigma willmottainum          | 1       | *Rhamnes calif. Eve Case         | 1/2    |
| Choisya ternata                      | 1/2     | Rosemarinas o. Tuscan Blue       | 1      |
| Coleonema Golden Sunset              | 2       | Rubus calcinoides                | 1/2    |
| Coleonema                            | 1       |                                  |        |
| Coleonema (Red)                      | 2       | Salvia darcii                    | 1      |
| Convolvulus mauritanicas             | 1       | Salvia leucantha                 | 1      |
| Correa Wyns Wonder (varigated)       | 1       | Salvia Limelight                 | 1      |
|                                      |         | Salvia - uliginosa               | 1      |
| *Eriogonum f. - Warriner Lytle       | 1       | Salvia - Waverly                 | 1      |
| *Eriophyllum lanatum Siskyou         | 1       | Silene vulgaris - Maritima       | 1      |
| Euphorbia - Glacier Blue             | 1       | Solanum jasminiodes              | 1      |
| Euphorbia wulfunii                   | 1       | Stipa arundinacea                | 2      |
|                                      |         |                                  |        |
| Festuca Siskyou Blue                 | 1       | Tecrium c.                       | 1/2    |
|                                      |         |                                  |        |
| Galvesia speciosa                    | 1       | Westringia Smoky                 | 1      |

|                  |   |  |  |  |
|------------------|---|--|--|--|
|                  |   |  |  |  |
| Hibiscus trionum | 1 |  |  |  |

LIST OF LAMINATED SIGNS

g

Campanula poscharskyana

Streptosolen jamesonii

Fuchsia thymifolia

Rosemary - Huntington Carpet

Cerastostigma

Baccharis p. Consanguineum

Physostegia virginiana - Obedient plant

Trachelospermum asiatica

Phygellus capensis

Saponaria lempertia Max Frei

Muhlenbergia rigens

Heuchera Amethyst Mist

Fuchsia glaziovicia

Phlomis fruticosa

Salvia Wendy's Wish

Salvia Indigo Spires

Abutilon Kirsten's Pink

Penstemon Huntington Pink

Penstemon Blackbird

Abutilon Tangerine

Rosemary - Blue Spires

Fuchsia fulgens

Erigeron glaucas Wayne Roderick

Drosanthemum micans

Erigeron glaucus Bountiful

Rosemary Collingwood Ingram

Brugmansia Charles Grimaldi

Abutilon Halo

Salvia uliginosa

Abutilon Souvenir de Bonn

| DATE |  |  |  | LOCATION |  |  |  |
|------|--|--|--|----------|--|--|--|
|------|--|--|--|----------|--|--|--|