It is with the heaviest of hearts that I officially resign today. Being the first elected Mayor of Windsor was the highest professional honor of my life. Thank you, Ken, for your leadership and your friendship over the last few years. Thank you Maria and your team for being the greatest support staff a mayor could ever ask for. Ken, please pass along my unending appreciation to all of our amazing town employees. I've seen first hand that it is their dedicated work that has made Windsor the greatest town in America. It has been a true honor to serve with them over the last nine years. I leave confident that the town will continue to prosper in their capable hands. I wish nothing but the best for our beloved Windsor going forward.

Sincerely,

Your Mayor
